Boning Up On Zoning

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Pennsylvania Ave. Situation Studied Anew By Council

By ROBERT POPP

Is Pennsylvania Ave., East End, residential or commercial?

The zoning regulations say a long stretch of it is residential. Many of the business people contend it is commercial.

It's up to Council to decide, now that it has promised an investigation, a decision and legislative action, if necessary.

A pretty good argument can be made for either zoning classification. It's like the old Hindu fable about the blind men who examined the elephant by touching one extremity or another.

THE MEANDERING thoroughfare is lined with many homes, sometimes for an unbroken block. Other blocks are almost solidly commercial.

The street serves every sort of enterprise — auto agencies, used car lots, a drug store, a savings institution, a pet shop, a shopping plaza, an appliance store, many neighborhood food stores, churches, service stations, auto body shops and many others.

There are a few vacant homes and several vacant store buildings. Heavy traffic rumbles along the street day and night, a natural for business places catering to motorists, but not much of a boon to the retailers who aim strictly for a neighborhood trade.

For most of its length, the street is zoned R-3, a "medium high density residential" area. The zoning irks some of the business people and the owners of business property because it hampers their operations — or changes in operations, at least. So far, the homeowners have not made their feelings public.

THERE ARE a few exceptions to the R-3 zoning. The area on the north side of Pennsylvania Ave. immediately east of Dewey Ave. is zoned M-1, "restricted industrial." Adjoining that tract to the east is another area zoned B-2, "community shopping center."

The professional planning concern, which drafted the recommendations for the zoning areas, later ratified by the City Planning Commision and Council, was looking 10 years or more into the future, when the Freeway will be extended eastward to the state line, making a "quiet side street" out of what is now one of the busiest thoroughfares in East Liverpool.

The planning firm assumed that all inter-city traffic will move along the four - lane highway, which probably will be built on the hillside overlooking East End.

That would leave Pennsylvania Ave. and the adjacent streets to strictly neighborhood traffic. With that development and the natural attrition of business places along the route, Pennsylvania Ave. will become more and more a residential area, the planners figured.

BUT 10 YEARS is a long time into the future and the East End business people are trying to cope with today's problems.

That's why they asked Council to change the zoning of the long stretch to allow uninhibited commercial development.

The attrition of the business places already has started, judging from the appearance of some of the vacant commercial buildings along Pennsylvania Ave. Some are untended, with many of their windows smashed.

Even with the R-3 zoning, businesses which existed prior to adoption of the regulations could continue operation indefinitely. A zoning law cannot be

Three Americans Injured In 2-Hour Fight, Report Says

SAIGON (AP) — American forces maneuvered to the fringes of the Demilitarized Zone along the western anchor of the McNamara Line and blasted entrenched North Vietnamese troops with tank and gunfire, military spokesmen reported today.

About 200 men from the 1st Brigade of the 5th Mechanized Infantry Division killed 29 North Vietnamese soldiers in a two-hour fight Wednesday a mile below the DMZ. Three Americans were wounded.

North Vietnamese troops are reported digging in around allied patrol bases along the northern frontier, apparently trying to hem in allied troops and keep the infiltration routes open.

The 5th Division troops moved out of their base at Con Thien and pushed to within a mile of the southern edge of the DMZ when the North Vietnamese opened up with mortars and machine guns. The American tanks replied with 90mm tank guns, and the battle continued for about two hours.

Con Thien is the western anchor of the McNamara Line, the string of electronic detection devices that runs from the coast inland for 11 miles and is supposed to sound the alarm when infiltrating troops cross it. It is named for former Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

U.S. sources say as many as 30,000 North Vietnamese soldiers are concentrated along the northern frontier, and the U.S. Command expects another major enemy offensive in the northern provinces before the monsoon season reaches its peak in November.

Sharp fighting also was reported farther south, along the coastal lowlands midway between Saigon and the DMZ.

Deserves Respect, He Says

HHH 'Hecklers' Blasted By Nixon

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has assailed "the hostile crowds" and the demonstrators besetting the campaign of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, his Democratic rival for the White House.

"Let me say this: The President of the United States and the office that he holds, and the vice president of the United States and the office that he holds—they deserve respect," the Republican presidential nominee said Wednesday night. "And I know that they should get respect wherever they go."

Nixon campaigns in the Midwest today, with stops in Springfield, Mo., and Peoria, Ill., on the way to a fund-raising dinner in New York City.

There, Nixon will address one of 20 dinners—at $1,000-a-plate—linked by closed circuit television.

Before an overflow criwd of more than 10,000, in the vast Mormon Tabernacle Wednesday night, Nixon assailed demonstrators who heckle Humphrey and President Johnson.

"I have some disagreements with the President of the United States as I've already indicated, in the conduct of policy, and with the vice president if the United States," he said.

"But as I see what has happened to both of them over these past few years, as I have seen them reviled and cursed, as I have seen the hostile crowds across this land, I disagree more with those who will not give them the opportunity to speak out."

Nixon himself encountered hecklers earlier Wednesday as he addressed some 5,500 people at a rally in Fresno, Calif. a band of about 50 pickets supporting efforts to unionize farm laborers clapped their hands, chanted, "We want justice!" as he spoke.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan denounced "the noisy type of barbarians who will not follow orderly procedures." But Nixon ignored the noise.

The hecklers, stripped of their picket signs by Fresno police, had walked out of the hall before Nixon restated his opposition to a union-backed boycott of California grapes.

"It is unfair to damn a whole great industry and to boycott a whole great industry because of the excesses of a few," he said. He said only when farmers prosper can their employees prosper.

Later, standing before the giant organ and the 375 members of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir in Salt Lake City, Nixon said it will take new policies and new men to deal with the problems of the nation.

He said Humphrey doesn't meet that test. "I say that when you're in trouble, you don't turn to the one who helped to get you in trouble," said Nixon.

Wallace Says Nixon Should Snub Debates

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — George C. Wallace says Republican Richard M. Nixon should not accept an offer to debate other presidential candidates on national television.

"I think he should refuse," Wallace said, "because if he decides to do it then we will start talking about his record and the record of the Republican party and there is no way he can win it."

The third-party presidential candidate spoke to a cheering audience of more than 10,000 at a rally in Kansas City Wednesday night before returning to Montgomery today.

Wallace will speak at a dinner and rally tonight in Montgomery and then go to Florida Friday to campaign.

In a fund-raising dinner speech at Kansas City, he paraphrased his often-repeated charge that there "isn't 10 cents worth of difference between the Republican and Democratic candidates."

"Now," he said, "a few things they are saying aren't 10 cents worth different from what I've been saying."

He referred to Nixon's speeches advocating "law and order."

"They ought to be willing to restore order for nothing," Wallace said. "After all, they took it away from us."

He said the Republicans started a trend toward loss of law and order with appointment of Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

Wallace spoke earlier Wednesday to some 3,500 persons at Cape Girardeau where he attacked liberals "who harp about Chicago and the police."

A-Curb Pact Seen Periled By Invasion

Mansfield Points To Skepticism Of Signatory Nations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield said today that one of the victims of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia could be the treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons.

In a report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the Montana Democrat said the pact is in danger because of "skepticism which the precipitous Soviet action has undoubtedly aroused among the signatory nations to which nuclear weapons are not to proliferate under the treaty."

Should these nonnuclear nations ratify the treaty, Mansfield said, "they will have entrusted, in effect the nuclear aspects of their defense to the principal nuclear powers, one of which is the Soviet Union.

"What they have just witnessed in Czechoslovakia is hardly likely to provide assurances that this trust is well placed.

Mansfield's report was based on a brief visit he made to Czechoslovakia prior to the invasion Aug. 20.

It is most regrettable, he declared, that the invasion jeopardizes "constructive interchange" between East and West. "In recent years, exchanges in tourism, trade and talent have done a great deal to erode the wall of fear of an earlier period," he noted.

Mansfield praised the Johnson administration's restraint during the crisis. "Unlike Hungary a decade ago," he said, "there has been no empty talk of liberating Czechoslovakia. There has been no inadvertently cruel misleading of the Czechoslovak people."

The Czech leaders, he said, "sought no special assistance

Equal Time Measure Seen In Real Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — A backer of a bill that would open the way for televised debates between the major presidential candidates says the measure "is in deep trouble."

Rep. Brock Adams, D-Wash., of the House Commerce Committee gave that appraisal Wednesday after the committee put off a final decision on the Senate-approved measure until today.

The bill would suspend requirements that broadcast stations or networks who allow time to a legally qualified candidate must provide equal opportunities to all others competing for the same office. This was done in 1960.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia announced today it is suspending diplomatic relations with the Philippines in retaliation for the new Philippine law "incorporating" the Malaysian Borneo State of Sabah into the Philippines.

Senate Passes Gun Control Bill; Measure Far Short Of LBJ's Goal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A gun control bill, atacked by the National Rifle Association but falling far short of what President Johnson sought after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, has passed the Senate and been sent to joint conference committee with the House.

The bill, basically banning mail order sales of rifles and shotguns, was passed Wednesday with two major differences from the version approved in the House July 24.

But the conference committee is not expected to have difficulty reaching a compromise which then must be approved again by the separate chambers before going on to the White House.

With some members of Congress anxious to get home to campaign for re-election and the Senate facing prolonged debate on a new chief justice the outlook for swift final action is uncertain.

The Senate and House versions differ mainly in penalties proposed for criminals committing federal crimes while armed with a gun and for sales of ammunition.

Neither version contains the major provisions sought by Johnson after the June 6 assassination of Kennedy, gunned down by a pistol after winning the California Democratic presidential primary election.

These would have required registration of all firearms and licensing of owners. Soundly defeatd earlier in the House and in the Senate Judiciary Committee, the provisions were rejected Wednesday in the Senate 55 to 31.

The president of the National Rifle Association termed defeat of the registration provisions "a victory for the American people."

But Harold Glassen, a Lansing, Mich., attorney, criticized passage, saying 'no one can say a law is going to save a life. There is no indication that the availability of firearms has anything to do with crimes."

Delta Rocket Explodes To Ruin Launch

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A 10-story-tall Delta rocket tumbled out of control Wednesday night and exploded high above the Atlantic, ruining an $11 million attempt to orbit the world's most powerful communications satellite.

The launch director said a faulty guidance system caused the trouble that brought fiery destruction to the spacecraft Atlantic 3.

"It seems quite clear there was an in-flight failure at 20 seconds after liftoff" in the gyroscope system needed to steer the three-stage rocket, said Robert Gray, launch director for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Eighty-three seconds later, the Delta pitched back toward earth and exploded, sending pieces of the shattered rocket and its Atlantic 3 payload plummeting into the ocean about 10 miles offshore.

Officials said it exploded before the range safety officer had time to destroy it.

Atlantic 3, owned by the International Telecommunications Satellite Consortium—Intelsat—was to have been the first in a global network of new switchboard satellites that would link most of the world. It also was to have been used to relay telecasts of the Olympic games from Mexico City to Europe.

Dutch Boat Reported Sinking In Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard said today the Dutch freighter Johannes Frans was slowly sinking in heavy Atlantic seas about 650 miles east of here.

A Coast Guard cutter and a merchant tug stood by but were unable to help the 18,000-ton, 633-foot freighter because of the 10 to 15-foot seas. The ship was taking on water from an unknown source and therefore could not be towed, the Coast Guard said.

It was not known how many were aboard the ship.

Bond Posted For Youth In City Stabbing

The youth stabbed Miss Leon, 25, in her car after persuading her to give him a lift from the St. Clair Shopping Plaza to the downtown area Tuesday evening.

The youth is to appear Wednesday afternoon before Judge Louis Tobin.

The affidavit alleges the Bradshaw Ave. youth "is a delinquent in that he assaulted Frances Leon with a dangerous weapon" (a knife).

The youth stabbed Miss Leon, 25, in her car after persuading her to give him a lift from the St. Clair Shopping Plaza to the downtown area Tuesday evening.

Equal Time Measure Seen In Real Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — A backer of a bill that would open the way for televised debates between the major presidential candidates says the measure "is in deep trouble."

Rep. Brock Adams, D-Wash., of the House Commerce Committee gave that appraisal Wednesday after the committee put off a final decision on the Senate-approved measure until today.

The bill would suspend requirements that broadcast stations or networks who allow time to a legally qualified candidate must provide equal opportunities to all others competing for the same office. This was done in 1960.

Malaysia Breaks Off Ties With Philippines

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia announced today it is suspending diplomatic relations with the Philippines in retaliation for the new Philippine law "incorporating" the Malaysian Borneo State of Sabah into the Philippines.

Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman said the annexation law "has completely undermined the very foundation which led to the normalization of diplomatic relations between Malaysia and the Phillippines." They had been suspended from 1963 to 1966.

Dutch Boat Reported Sinking In Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard said today the Dutch freighter Johannes Frans was slowly sinking in heavy Atlantic seas about 650 miles east of here.

A Coast Guard cutter and a merchant tug stood by but were unable to help the 18,000-ton, 633-foot freighter because of the 10 to 15-foot seas. The ship was taking on water from an unknown source and therefore could not be towed, the Coast Guard said.

It was not known how many were aboard the ship.

Bole, a caterer, said he was told to bake 10,000 cookies for the crowd Wednesday. About 400 persons showed up.

Zoning

made retroactive. The existing businesses are known in the zoning jargon as "non-conforming." So long as there is no basic alteration in the type of business or structure, they can continue for 100 years without hindrance from zoning.

But when a non - conforming business pulls out of a commercial building, there's only a two-year grace period in which it may be occupied by another non - conforming business of the same type. If 25 months have elapsed, no business place can occupy the structure, even though it might be of the same character as the establishment which formerly used the building.

BUT A RETAIL grocery cannot occupy a building that formerly was used by a wallpaper store, for instance.

Long - range zoning regulations contemplate that the nonconforming structures gradually will fade away and be replaced by buildings of the type allowed by the regulations.

But the East End business people contend that's highly unlikely, in fact illegal, because of another requirement on lot sizes. The existing business buildings are built on comparatively small tracts. Zoning regulations provide that in an R-3 area, a single - family dwelling cannot be erected on a lot with less than 60 feet frontage. It must have a minimum yard area of 25 feet in the front and 30 feet at the rear.

The planning and zoning code makes provision for individual changes in classification, but not for a wholesale change covering an entire district, as the East End business people asked of Council. If it were to be followed, literally hundreds of separate applications would have to be processed by the planning commission and Council to accomplish the general rezoning.

BUT SOLICITOR J. Michael Kapp said he has determined that the Ohio Revised Code would permit Council to initiate action for rezoning of the entire stretch at one swoop. If Council determines such a step is desirable, it would make a recommendation to the planning commission, which would hold a public hearing just as it does in the case of individual applications, Kapp said.

Then, if the commission approved, it would hand its recommendation on to Council, which would hold another public hearing and then take whatever legislative action it deemed proper, Kapp said. The process would require 60 days, the minimum time needed now for handling an application for rezoning of a single small tract, he said.

The question is being studied now by Council's planning commitee, which has instructions to report as quickly as possible. When the committee's recommendation is filed, Council will be ready for the next step, if the finding is affirmative.

This restraint, however, does not mean that the United States would recognize spheres of influences, Mansfield declared.

"There can be no tacit acquiescence in any Soviet right to dominate Czechoslovakia or any other independent nation in Eastern Europe . . . The avoidance of bombast in present circumstances is merely a recognition of the practical limitations of U.S. action."

Mansfield's statements about the nonproliferation treaty didn't include the problems the pact faces in the Senate itself. Although the Foreign Relations Committee has recommended passage, some members have called for delay in ratification.

Vietnam

Quang Ngai City Wednesday, 10 Americans were killed and 15 were wounded. Enemy casualties were not known.

In a delayed report, U.S. headquarters said other troops from the Americal Division killed 43 North Vietnamese soldiers in an all-night battle Tuesday south of Tam Ky, another provincial capital. The fight was triggered when enemy troops ambushed a U.S. unit, killing eight Americans and wounding 19.

The U.S. Command indicated that more action is expected along the demilitarized zone as well as around Saigon. A communique said that the highest level of enemy activity during the past several days has been in the 1st Corps Area, which takes in Saigon and the provinces around it.

The communique said allied forces have seized more than 90 tons of munitions and food stockpiled in the two areas, much of it around the outpost called the Rock Pile just below the central part of the DMZ. The stockpiles included more than 80,000 rounds of small arms ammunition, 12,000 mortar and rocket shells, and 14 tons of rice, which U.S. headquarters said would feed a 600-man North Vietnamese battalion for a month.

South Vietnamese forces turned up two more arms stockpiles 16 and 20 miles south of Saigon. The haul included five mortar tubes, two bazooka-type rockets and assorted parts for mortars and long-range 107mm rocket launchers that have been used to shell Saigon in the past.

Fighting last week in the northernmost provinces and along the jungle approaches northwest of Saigon was reflected in the weekly casualty summary issued today by the U.S. Command.

The report said 217 Americans, 376 South Vietnamese and 2,484 of the enemy were killed in action last week. The U.S. and South Vietnamese totals were slightly higher than those for the week before, while the enemy total was 435 greater.

In a delayed report, the U.S. mission said 30 South Vietnamese civilians were killed and four were wounded Tuesday when a Viet Cong mine blew up two buses on Route 1 in the central coastal lowlands.

In the same area, the mission said, Viet Cong mortar fire killed seven civilians, wounded 25 and destroyed nine homes and 34 fishing boats, also on Tuesday.

U.S. pilots flew 131 missions against North Vietnam Wednesday, and North Vietnamese ground fire brought down a Navy A7 Corsair. The pilot is missing. It was the 892nd American warplane announced downed in combat over North Vietnam.

The U.S. Command said a flight of F8 Crusaders from the carrier Hancock engaged two Communist MIG21 interceptors for about eight minutes just below the 19th parallel. A U.S. spokesman said that was a little longer than usual, but he did not know whether any of the fighters exchanged fire or whether they were trying to maneuver into advantageous position. None of the planes was reported hit.

U.S. pilots reported destroying or damaging 46 supply craft and 25 trucks in the continuing effort to slow the movement of war materials into South Vietnam.

Beaver Man Burned

A Beaver area man was in "good" condition today at Presbyterian Hospital, Pittsburgh, with burns received in an accident late Tuesday morning at the Midland Division of Crucible Steel Corp.

In the same area, the mission said, Viet Cong mortar fire killed seven civilians, wounded 25 and destroyed nine homes and 34 fishing boats, also on Tuesday.

U.S. pilots flew 131 missions against North Vietnam Wednesday, and North Vietnamese ground fire brought down a Navy A7 Corsair. The pilot is missing. It was the 892nd American warplane announced downed in combat over North Vietnam.

The U.S. Command said a flight of F8 Crusaders from the carrier Hancock engaged two Communist MIG21 interceptors for about eight minutes just below the 19th parallel. A U.S. spokesman said that was a little longer than usual, but he did not know whether any of the fighters exchanged fire or whether they were trying to maneuver into advantageous position. None of the planes was reported hit.

U.S. pilots reported destroying or damaging 46 supply craft and 25 trucks in the continuing effort to slow the movement of war materials into South Vietnam.

Beaver Man Burned

A Beaver area man was in "good" condition today at Presbyterian Hospital, Pittsburgh, with burns received in an accident late Tuesday morning at the Midland Division of Crucible Steel Corp.

The Middle East—A Volcano

The volcano which is the Middle East continues to boil, sending off occasional plumes of "steam" which portend the likelihood of major eruptions to come.

Recently, the heat-charged statements have come primarily from the Arab states, Egyptian particular. President Gamal Abdel Nasser has said repeatedly that the United Arab Republic and its allies intend to take back the land occupied by Israel during the six-day war 15 months ago.

THE SOVIET UNION has given credence to his fiery charges by sending Egypt all the armament and munitions it needs plus large numbers of Soviet military advisers and instructors.

Israel has been relatively silent. But Monday Defense Minister Moshe Dayan told the Israeli people that they must be prepared for another war. He called for new and heavy investment in armament.

The United Nations considers the situation in the Middle East very tense. While the Security Council wrangles about the wording of a condemnatory resolution, few persons really believe that the world body will be able, in any way, to prevent war between Israel and her Arab neighbors.

ISRAEL, MEANWHILE, hopes that if the war is touched off, Russia will not intervene on Egypt's side out of fear of a confrontation with the United States.

While Americans are preoccupied with the war in Vietnam and developments in and around Czechoslovakia, potential trouble of an even greater magnitude is brewing in the Middle East.

Looking Deeper Into Alcohol

Research scientists recently have been scoring breakthroughs in one field after another. Their work, designed to improve man's lot, has touched many areas in which problems beset humankind.

The latest results of experimentation with alcohol were announced last week at the national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Atlantic City, N.J.

Two New York scientists have uncovered evidence that alcohol causes chemical changes in the brain similar to the effects produced by the mindbending and addictive drugs.

ANYONE WHO HAS SEEN an inebriate knows that his mind, while under the influence of alcohol is fogged and malfunctioning to say the least. But scientists have not known just exactly why this is so.

The research of Dr. Gerald Cohen of Columbia University's college of physicians and surgeons and biochemist Michael Collins of the New York State Psychiatric Institute may be the key to the puzzle.

They told the chemical society members their experiments confirm that when alcohol's principal body metabolite comes in contact with chemicals in the brain and central nervous system they produce alkaloids almost identical to those found in morphine, peyote, mescaline and opium.

IF SUBSEQUENT RESEARCH leads to incontrovertible evidence that alcohol brings about chemical changes in the brain with a deleterious effect, it may be easier to deter generations of the future from becoming alcoholics.

Armed with new knowledge of why alcohol does the things it does, physicians may be better able to effect a cure for alcoholics wanting to "kick the habit."

The new information should certainly provide some control measures which would lessen the detrimental sociological impact of the misuse of alcohol.

Appleseed Festival

Promoters of Lisbon's "Johnny Appleseed Festival" which begins tonight have arranged an entertaining and interesting fall celebration.

The fete has the usual parade, queen and rides, plus some exhibits and demonstrations devoted to the early history of this country and to the misty memory of the man to whom the fete pays tribute.

Apple-butter making and a pony-operated cider press, for example, should be intriguing remnants of the past for all visitors, and help make it the success hoped for to establish the festival as an annual event.

Letter To The Editor

Mothers of the Chester area should try to support some kind of program to provide proper recreation and entertainment for teen-agers in our town.

Last night I took my 12-year-old daughter downtown to buy her an ice cream cone, and there wasn't any place open to buy a cone.

There isn't any place where young people can get together except on the street corners; there should be a place where they can meet and play records and enjoy themselves.

A community with the homes, industry and stores we have deserves to have better facilities for our youngsters. The mothers should try to determine if some kind of program can't be started, with the help of city officials or Hancock County officials or the state to make sure there is something provided for these young people.

The former center in the City Hall is no longer in existence, and the youth program at the City Park is provided only on certain nights.

The building at the park is down in a hole near the sewage plant, lacks adequate lighting and is not, I think, a satisfactory location for a center.

Parents, let's do something for our children they can truly appreciate. There is a real need for a place our children can go to for equipment and recreation. We as parents are responsible.

The Unhappy Wives

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — The football season has opened on schedule and once again families all over the country are being torn apart by the heavy schedule of televised games. I frankly regret the season has come. My wife and I were just getting a good relationship going and now we probably won't see each other until January.

Art Buchwald

The last time I talked to her, which was half an hour before the Washington Redskins-Chicago Bears game, I believe she was crying. I remember it quite distinctly because Frank Gifford was showing some great movies of Gale Sayers and I noticed out of the corner of my eye that my wife was getting tears all over my potato chips.

"I hate soggy potato chips," I said.

BUT SHE DIDN'T WANT to listen to reason. "Why does it have to happen to us every fall? What have I done wrong?"

There was a commercial on so I put my arms around her. "You haven't done anything wrong, Luv. Matter of fact, I was just telling the boys yesterday during halftime between the Tennessee-Georgia game, you're a precious jewel and next to football on TV, I love you more than anything else in the world."

She pushed me away. "I thought so. Well, do you know what I think of football?"

"Don't say something you'll be sorry for," I warned.

"I think it's the great American game of tag."

"NOW YOU'VE DONE IT," I said angrily. "Now you've really done it. By making that uncalled-for outburst, you have probably ruined my Sunday afternoon. If I could get up from this chair I'd probably walk out of this house."

She started crying again, so I moved the potato chips away. "I don't know if I can take another season of this," she said. "It isn't just the Saturday and Sunday afternoons. It's the long, lonely nights when they're showing games, and the game replays in the mornings and the specials of Vince Lombardi. Don't you have feelings for me?"

"You're exaggerating," I said. "There was no pro football on last Tuesday night. I know that's a fact because it was the night I played poker."

I was becoming nervous because it was getting near kickoff time. "What are you going to do?"

"I'm leaving. I'm going to find someone who cares about me, someone who wants me for myself." Then she said, "I might even take a lover."

"Hey, that's a good idea," I said. "But will you be sure there's enough beer in the icebox? We ran out last weekend."

She stomped out of the room just in time. Washington had won the toss and had elected to receive.

Ben, Phil, George, Joe and "Doc" had shown up by this time. George was the first to notice something was wrong. "These potato chips are very soggy," he said.

"My wife was crying in them," I apologized. "I'll get a fresh bag after the next timeout."

"THE WOMEN ARE certainly taking the season hard,' Ben said. "I never saw them so upset."

"You can say that again," said Doc. "Just before I came over my wife told me she was going to find herself a lover."

"So did mine," said Phil.

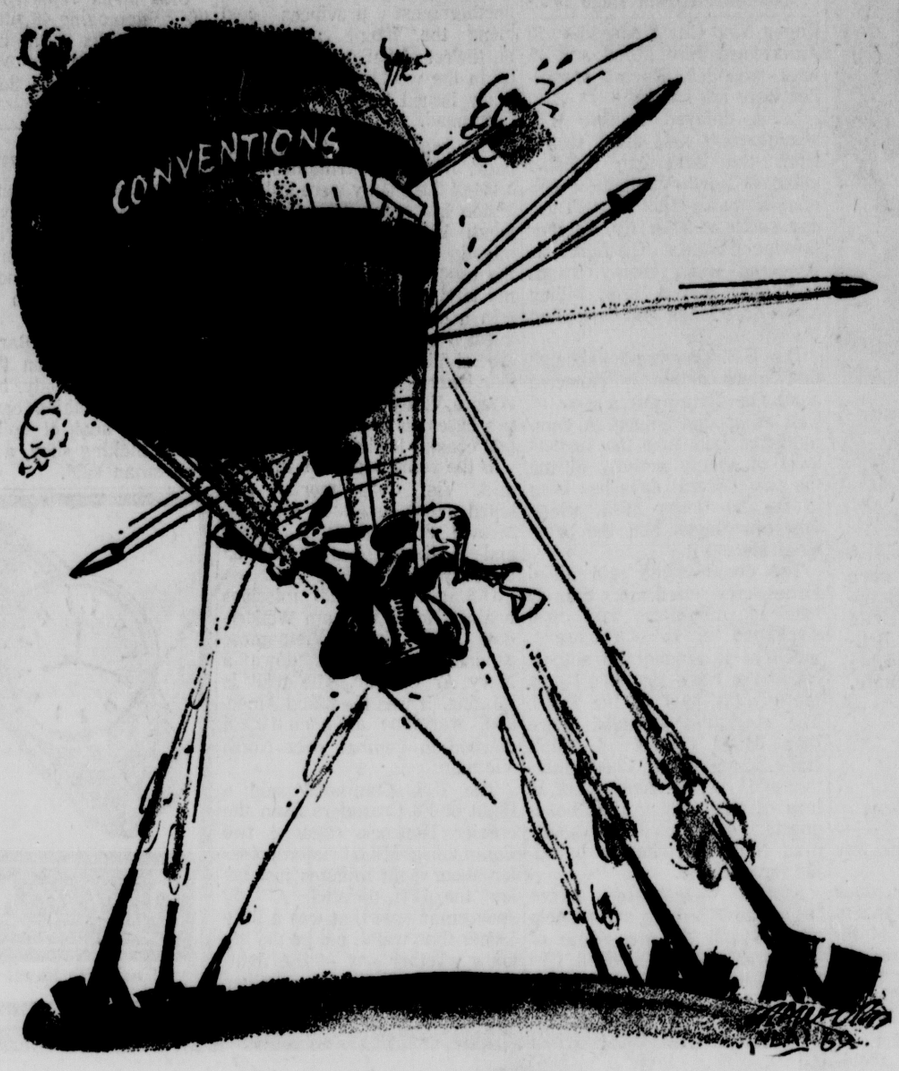

"What did you say?"

"I said she couldn't. I needed the car to come over here."

"None of you seem worried," Ben said.

"Why should we be?" said George. "Who are they going to find? Everyone's watching football on television?"

Reuther Lives Dangerously

NEW YORK: — Word has come that auburn-haired Walter Reuther has decided to live dangerously. Next weekend he will lay a wreath at the shrine of American Socialists — the Terre Haute, Ind., birthplace of the legendary World War I vintage Socialist leader, Eugene Victor Debs.

Victor Riesel

This startles many of us who have heard old-timers say of "Walter" that a "comrade in power is a comrade lost."

Through the decades the auto union leader, mindful of the possibilities of high public office, or a UN ambassadorship, has avoided old Socialist friends and activities on the American mainland.

But he's darting around the nation now, weaving a new labor power structure. Some days after the wreath laying, Reuther will more orthodox. He and that latter-day crusader, Teamsters' chief Frank (Fitz) Fitzsimmons, will be the stellar attractions at a city-wide truck drivers' rally in St. Louis.

This whirlwinding is prelude to the launching of a new labor federation next winter.

AT THE SIDE OF the auto and teamsters legions there will be leaders of some 90,000 chemical workers, some 450,000 meat cutters and packers, 200,000 rubber workers, and 90,000 members of the old, and almost forgotten, United Electrical Workers (UE) the pro-Soviet new left of 1949. And probably their West Coast comrades, the 60,000-member Pacific longshoremen's union which in the '30s really demonstrated how to besiege a city, seize a waterfront, and haul off bloodily at the gendarmerie.

All this has been duly noted by labor's high command, the AFL-CIO 29-member Executive Council, now meeting stoically and uncommunicatively in the old 42nd Street hotel named after Commodore Vanderbilt, who did not get on so well with the public.

Not only is this duly noted, but it is duly disturbing to the men who have gathered solely to plan strategy for the selection of Hubert Humphrey.

The men of labor, to whom infighting is instinctive, don't want a two-front war. They'll need all the time, energy and money they can whip up to defeat Richard Nixon and George Wallace. They don't want to waste a single minute of the next seven weeks battling the Reuther-Fitzsimmons Alliance for Labor Action ALA, which already has some 3.7 million members.

The AFL-CIO chiefs are over their quota on serious political problems. There is the generation gap, the Wallace gap, the black gap, and the gap which is Hubert Humphrey himself.

THEY CERTAINLY ARE for him on the outside, but inside their closed conference rooms they don't love him in September as they did in May.

On foreign policy they find themselves in greater affinity with, of all people, Dick Nixon, than with, of all candidates, Hubert Humphrey.

These labor men are the world's most unbreakable anti-Communist phalanx. They are Lyndon Johnson's most undeviating supporters on Vietnam. For years, they have been excoriated in the Soviet press as hard-line, cold-war warriors.

They were sickened by the invasion of Czecoslovakia. So they don't relish hearing any "hardliner" or cold warrior denounced for a tough stand on international communism.

By implication — possibly design — Mr. Humphrey's attack on Dick Nixon undercuts President Johnson. Labor president George Meany doesn't like it privately, won't say so publicly, but is having a problem squeezing money and manpower out of some stone-hearted unions as a result of this and other Humphrey postures.

So today with November 5 roaring down on them the union leaders have only two statewide labor for Humphrey committees "in action" — one on New York, the other in California. By this time there should have been 17 major state-wide units in the hustings.

SO, LABOR'S TOP MEN just don't want to tangle with the Reuther-Fitzsimmons duo. AFL-CIO leaders know that the United Auto Workers' executive board "unanimously" endorsed the Humphrey-Muskie ticket last week. But somehow this became the best kept secret in Detroit.

Reuther now is putting his union through 10 regional, democratic, secret ballot elections. Those who were delegates to the May convention and those who are chairmen of the union's Community Action Committees will vote for either Hubert Humphrey, Dick Nixon or George Wallace.

Finally the ballots will be taken to Detroit. They'll be counted by the American Arbitration Assn. on Sept. 24. By that time, as they say in the garment area here, it will be the fifth season. There will be mighty little time for campaigning.

All of this nettles the AFL-CIO high command here. They're not slugging back at "Walter" — now. They first want to put their man in the White House.

Then this country will see the fiercest labor civil war since they used to go at each other with auto chains, baling hooks and brass knuckles. There will be strike and counterstrike. Raid and counterraid.

Obviously, Walter Reuther has decided to live dangerously.

Demonstrations

The City of Chicago's presentation of its side of the controversy about the turbulence which occurred during the week when the Democratic National Convention was held really revealed no surprises.

Anybody who is familiar with the misuse of "demonstrators" — presumably to express opinions on public affairs, — has known for a long time that violence is often deliberately incited.

The police are provoked until some of them become angered and use their nightsticks indiscriminately, and the new result is injury to scores of participants as well as bystanders.

THE QUESTION that has been lost sight of is related to the issuance of permits to "demonstrate" by means of "parades" or "marches."

Chicago's Mayor Daley knew in advance that the purpose of many of the leaders of the invading "demonstrators" was to stir up trouble. He refused permits to parade, though he did agree to let protestors gather in Lincoln Park.

Sooner or later, there will be general approval whenever the mayor of a city declines a permit to any organization whose spokesmen have previously used provocative phrases and plainly indicate an intention to do things that incite violence.

The moment Mayor Daley agreed to let "demonstrators" gather in Lincoln Park, he had a potential riot on his hands. Quotations from the leaders who had boasted that they would "disrupt" the Democratic National Convention were available.

Yet, the mayor, feeling that he had to bow to the right of "free speech and assembly," finally let the demonstrators hold a protest meeting in Grant Park, just across the street from the hotel where the Democratic headquarters was located.

It was obvious from the start that at some stage there would be a "confrontation" between the police and the demonstrators and that individuals on both sides would lose their tempers and violence would ensue.

The television networks naturally picked out the most sensational aspects of the disturbances than going on, and gave nationwid audiences of the impression that innocent demonstrators and bystanders were being clubbed without justification.

When Mayor Daley presented his side of the story, he showed some of the preparations being made by the demonstrators and exhibited some of the weapons — rocks, knives, broken glass, clubs and missiles of metal and wood — which were ued against the police.

It is significant that in the pictures carried by the TV networks during convention week and those in the film by the City of Chicago shown on Sunday night, hardly any Negroes were visible in the crowds. There were no racial overtones.

It was a contest with city authorities by a group of radicals — mostly from other states — who claimed they were primarily interested in agitating against the Vietnam War but who gave every inpression of being "exhibitionists" anxiuos for attention and desirous of expressing their own emotions. All of this, in the presence of cameras, led to acts of violence.

The episode has a lesson in it for the mayors of American cities. They must decide for themselves whether they will issue permits to everybody who merely states a desire to "demonstrate." The nature of the organization, its background and the comments made by its leaders in advance, when put together can justify a refusal to grant a permit for a parade in the streets.

Opportunity would be given instead for mass meetings to be held inside an auditorium or stadium which could be guarded from the outside by police.

Fortunately, nobody was killed in the Chicago "demonstrations." Scores were injured, however, and the city itself unfortunately was given a bad reputation throughout the country. This has made many organizations reluctant to send their conventions to that metropolis.

THE TV NETWORKS, it is claimed, did not give all of the story, but it often happens that cameras are concentrated on the most sensational aspects or that they are not present when some of the episodes occur.

Now that "both sides" have been presented widely on TV, the public knows that "demonstrators" are certainly a tragic phase of American life.

Ways and means to prevent such outbursts should occupy the attention of the mayors of cities and the leaders of the organizations of police chiefs.

Perhaps court tests can be made to determine whether the right of "free speech" extends to those who make public threats plainly related to "demonstrations" not of a peaceful, but of a violent nature.

But he's darting around the nation now, weaving a new labor power structure. Some days after the wreath laying, Reuther will more orthodox. He and that latter-day crusader, Teamsters' chief Frank (Fitz) Fitzsimmons, will be the stellar attractions at a city-wide truck drivers' rally in St. Louis.

This whirlwinding is prelude to the launching of a new labor federation next winter.

AT THE SIDE OF the auto and teamsters legions there will be leaders of some 90,000 chemical workers, some 450,000 meat cutters and packers, 200,000 rubber workers, and 90,000 members of the old, and almost forgotten, United Electrical Workers (UE) the pro-Soviet new left of 1949. And probably their West Coast comrades, the 60,000-member Pacific longshoremen's union which in the '30s really demonstrated how to besiege a city, seize a waterfront, and haul off bloodily at the gendarmerie.

All this has been duly noted by labor's high command, the AFL-CIO 29-member Executive Council, now meeting stoically and uncommunicatively in the old 42nd Street hotel named after Commodore Vanderbilt, who did not get on so well with the public.

Not only is this duly noted, but it is duly disturbing to the men who have gathered solely to plan strategy for the selection of Hubert Humphrey.

The men of labor, to whom infighting is instinctive, don't want a two-front war. They'll need all the time, energy and money they can whip up to defeat Richard Nixon and George Wallace. They don't want to waste a single minute of the next seven weeks battling the Reuther-Fitzsimmons Alliance for Labor Action ALA, which already has some 3.7 million members.

The AFL-CIO chiefs are over their quota on serious political problems. There is the generation gap, the Wallace gap, the black gap, and the gap which is Hubert Humphrey himself.

THEY CERTAINLY ARE for him on the outside, but inside their closed conference rooms they don't love him in September as they did in May.

On foreign policy they find themselves in greater affinity with, of all people, Dick Nixon, than with, of all candidates, Hubert Humphrey.

These labor men are the world's most unbreakable anti-Communist phalanx. They are Lyndon Johnson's most undeviating supporters on Vietnam. For years, they have been excoriated in the Soviet press as hard-line, cold-war warriors.

They were sickened by the invasion of Czecoslovakia. So they don't relish hearing any "hardliner" or cold warrior denounced for a tough stand on international communism.

By implication — possibly design — Mr. Humphrey's attack on Dick Nixon undercuts President Johnson. Labor president George Meany doesn't like it privately, won't say so publicly, but is having a problem squeezing money and manpower out of some stone-hearted unions as a result of this and other Humphrey postures.

So today with November 5 roaring down on them the union leaders have only two statewide labor for Humphrey committees "in action" — one on New York, the other in California. By this time there should have been 17 major state-wide units in the hustings.

SO, LABOR'S TOP MEN just don't want to tangle with the Reuther-Fitzsimmons duo. AFL-CIO leaders know that the United Auto Workers' executive board "unanimously" endorsed the Humphrey-Muskie ticket last week. But somehow this became the best kept secret in Detroit.

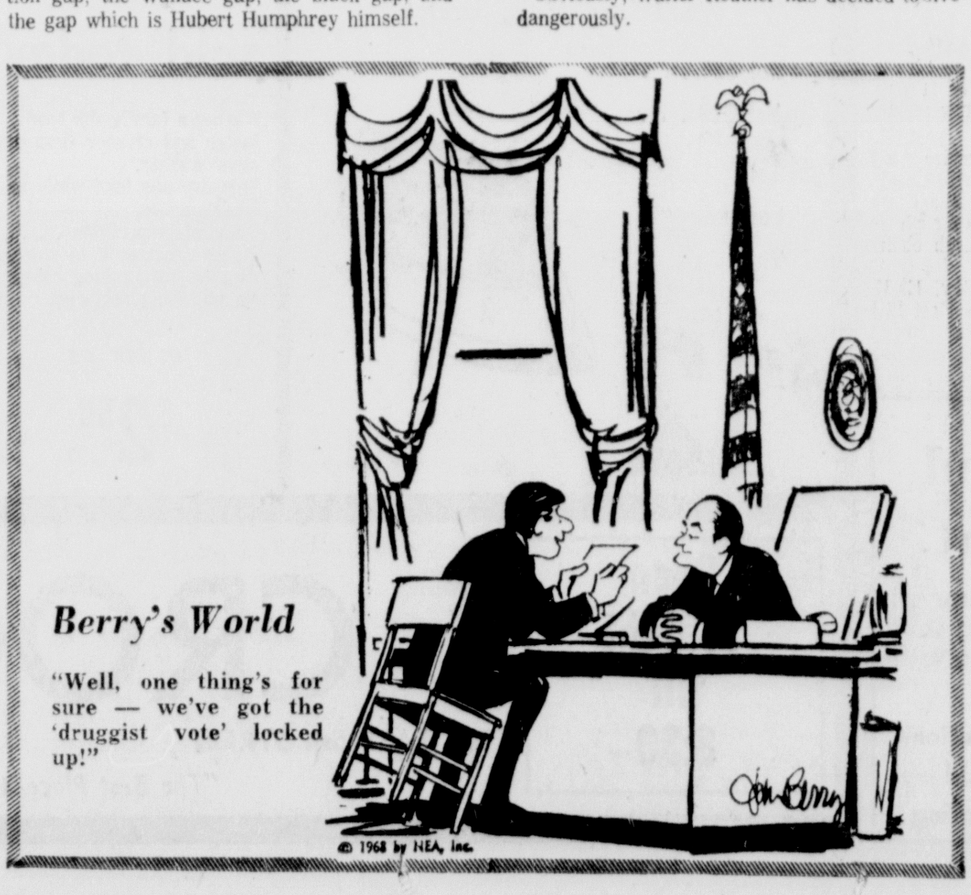

Reuther now is putting his union through 10 regional, democratic, secret ballot elections. Those who were delegates to the May convention and those who are chairmen of the union's Community Action Committees will vote for either Hubert Humphrey, Dick Nixon or George Wallace.

Finally the ballots will be taken to Detroit. They'll be counted by the American Arbitration Assn. on Sept. 24. By that time, as they say in the garment area here, it will be the fifth season. There will be mighty little time for campaigning.

All of this nettles the AFL-CIO high command here. They're not slugging back at "Walter" — now. They first want to put their man in the White House.

Then this country will see the fiercest labor civil war since they used to go at each other with auto chains, baling hooks and brass knuckles. There will be strike and counterstrike. Raid and counterraid.

Obviously, Walter Reuther has decided to live dangerously.

Demonstrations

The City of Chicago's presentation of its side of the controversy about the turbulence which occurred during the week when the Democratic National Convention was held really revealed no surprises.

Anybody who is familiar with the misuse of "demonstrators" — presumably to express opinions on public affairs, — has known for a long time that violence is often deliberately incited.

The police are provoked until some of them become angered and use their nightsticks indiscriminately, and the new result is injury to scores of participants as well as bystanders.

THE QUESTION that has been lost sight of is related to the issuance of permits to "demonstrate" by means of "parades" or "marches."

Chicago's Mayor Daley knew in advance that the purpose of many of the leaders of the invading "demonstrators" was to stir up trouble. He refused permits to parade, though he did agree to let protestors gather in Lincoln Park.

Sooner or later, there will be general approval whenever the mayor of a city declines a permit to any organization whose spokesmen have previously used provocative phrases and plainly indicate an intention to do things that incite violence.

The moment Mayor Daley agreed to let "demonstrators" gather in Lincoln Park, he had a potential riot on his hands. Quotations from the leaders who had boasted that they would "disrupt" the Democratic National Convention were available.

Yet, the mayor, feeling that he had to bow to the right of "free speech and assembly," finally let the demonstrators hold a protest meeting in Grant Park, just across the street from the hotel where the Democratic headquarters was located.

It was obvious from the start that at some stage there would be a "confrontation" between the police and the demonstrators and that individuals on both sides would lose their tempers and violence would ensue.

The television networks naturally picked out the most sensational aspects of the disturbances than going on, and gave nationwid audiences of the impression that innocent demonstrators and bystanders were being clubbed without justification.

When Mayor Daley presented his side of the story, he showed some of the preparations being made by the demonstrators and exhibited some of the weapons — rocks, knives, broken glass, clubs and missiles of metal and wood — which were ued against the police.

It is significant that in the pictures carried by the TV networks during convention week and those in the film by the City of Chicago shown on Sunday night, hardly any Negroes were visible in the crowds. There were no racial overtones.

It was a contest with city authorities by a group of radicals — mostly from other states — who claimed they were primarily interested in agitating against the Vietnam War but who gave every inpression of being "exhibitionists" anxiuos for attention and desirous of expressing their own emotions. All of this, in the presence of cameras, led to acts of violence.

The episode has a lesson in it for the mayors of American cities. They must decide for themselves whether they will issue permits to everybody who merely states a desire to "demonstrate." The nature of the organization, its background and the comments made by its leaders in advance, when put together can justify a refusal to grant a permit for a parade in the streets.

Opportunity would be given instead for mass meetings to be held inside an auditorium or stadium which could be guarded from the outside by police.

Fortunately, nobody was killed in the Chicago "demonstrations." Scores were injured, however, and the city itself unfortunately was given a bad reputation throughout the country. This has made many organizations reluctant to send their conventions to that metropolis.

THE TV NETWORKS, it is claimed, did not give all of the story, but it often happens that cameras are concentrated on the most sensational aspects or that they are not present when some of the episodes occur.

Now that "both sides" have been presented widely on TV, the public knows that "demonstrators" are certainly a tragic phase of American life.

Ways and means to prevent such outbursts should occupy the attention of the mayors of cities and the leaders of the organizations of police chiefs.

Perhaps court tests can be made to determine whether the right of "free speech" extends to those who make public threats plainly related to "demonstrations" not of a peaceful, but of a violent nature.

LISBON (AP) — Prime Minister Antonio de Oliveira Salazar stirred slightly from his coma today but his condition is still grave, an American specialist reported.

But he added that Salazar's "breathing has been helped and the patient is more awake."

Two committees concerned with administration of East Liverpool's new housing and zoning regulations conferred Wednesday night at City Hall with Planning Coordinator Don Eckert.

The board of appeals, created under the housing ordinance, was represented by Ernest Lowe, Glen Wilson, Vic Smith, Richard Carter and Willis Standley. A realtors' housing advisory committee was represented by James Lowe and Charles Sayre. Kenneth Kibler was absent.

Marvin Wooley, housing and zoning inspector, also attended. Eckert and Wooley gave the two committees a general explanation of the housing regulations and their administration.

The first official raising of the new 50-star American flag was from the flag poles at the east and west fronts of the national Capitol. At the same hour, the new flag was raised over Ft. McHenry National Monument in Baltimore, Md., birthplace of the national anthem.

Portuguese Premier's Condition Still Grave

LISBON (AP) — Prime Minister Antonio de Oliveira Salazar stirred slightly from his coma today but his condition is still grave, an American specialist reported.

He said it was not being ruled out that the 79-year-old leader, who suffered a massive stroke Monday, might still survive.

Dr. Houston Merritt of the Columbia University Medical Center, who was flown in Wednesday as a consultant, said in a communique released by the Portuguese that Salazar's condition was "approximately" the same as Wednesday. But he added that Salazar's "breathing has been helped and the patient is more awake."

ANN LANDERS

Husband Owns A 'Past'

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: For the past 15 years I've been married to a man who is respected and admired by everyone. He's successful in his business, has good looks, social position, and is loved by his children. The people he works with think he's the greatest.

Our marriage has surmounted many of life's adversities — the loss of a child, a business failure, serious illness and a bad car accident.

Last year I becme acquainted with some people who knew my husband in his childhood days. Slowly I began to put the pieces together and today I have a picture that is driving me crazy.

His real name is not the name he's using now. His parents, whom he claimed were dead, are very much alive. He had a previous marriage which he failed to mention. His war record, his age and his religion are not as he described them.

When I confronted him with the facts he admitted everything and agreed to go to a marriage counselor with me and get our life together back on the track. To my utter amazement, the marriage counselor agreed with my husband that I had no right to rake up the muck of the past and said I should accept him for what he is now.

What is your advice? — WITS' END.

Dear Wits: The marriage counselor is asking a great deal, but I believe his advice is sound. In my opinion there's no better alternative. If you break up your marriage in order to punish your husband for his bizarre behavior (it sounds sick to me), it would mean punishing yourself and your children as well. Don't do it.

The Spoilers

Dear Ann: I have two maiden aunts who are generous, kind-hearted and fine in every way. They dote on our son, age 5. Problem: They never ask me if Johnny can go for a pony ride, or to the movies on Saturday, or stay overnight, or go shopping for a tricycle—they ask HIM. Of course he says yes to everything. What child wouldn't?

I'd rather die than offend these two lovely women, but I feel they're not being fair to me or to the child. Is there a way out? — STYMIED.

Dear Stymied: No relative or friend should disregard a child's mother and you should not permit it. Tell the ladies to please clear all plans with you in advance from now on because a 5-year-old is not competent to make decisions that are best for him.

Record Breaker

Dear Ann: I've been married for 23 years to a man who's an oversexed alcoholic. He can drink 10 bottles of beer a night and more on weekends. He never touches gin or bourbon, only beer. I've told him he's an alcoholic, but he reminds me that he hasn't missed a day's work in five years and he brags about his sexual performance, which, I'm sorry to say, is as good as his work record.

According to him, if a man doesn't miss work and can make love every night he's not an alcoholic. He also insists he has never been drunk in his life. Can it be that he's right and I'm wrong? — BRICK WALL.

Dear Brick: Beer contains alcohol and a person can get knee-walking gassed on three bottles or less, according to his threshold of tolerance. A man who drinks 10 bottles of beer every night may or may not be an alcoholic, but he certainly has a drinking problem. Nobody can help a drunk who refuses to admit he has a drinking problem, so stop trying. Have you ever heard of Al-Anon? I recommend it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Man Posts $1,000 Bond After Secret Indictment

LISBON — George H. Sharpe, 76, of 1238 Croft St., East Liverpool, indicted secretly Tuesday by the Columbiana County grand jury on a charge of abortion, posted a $1,000 bond this morning in Common Pleas Court for arraignment Sept. 30.

One of 13 defendants indicted secretly, Sharpe is accused in connection with the miscarriage of a Parma girl.

Other secret indictment defendants who have been served with charges are:

Michael R. Ward, 21, of Lisbon, traffic manslaughter in the death of Freda Gunhold, 32, of Balmain, New South Wales, last July 2 on Route 30 five miles south of Lisbon. The state alleges he made a left turn in front of a motor scooter operated by the victim's husband, Harry N. Gunhold, 34, of Balmain.

James D. Chase, 20, Columbiana, burglary Nov. 23 at Northeast Farms, Columbiana.

Melvin Lehman, 19, Salem RD 5, (two cases) burglary Nov. 23 at Northeast Farms and burglary Jan. 11 at Crestview High School.

Robbert E. Smith, 37, of Newell, W. Va., soliciting for sodomy.

David J. McFaul, 27, of 422 Grove Alley, East Liverpool, non-support of minor children.

Robert Means, 18, of Y. & O. Rd., East Liverpool, traffic manslaughter in death of Ricky Jolly, East Liverpool RD 1, June 21 on Route 11 (the Freeway) two-tenths of a mile south of the East Liverpool city limits. The victim, 16, was a passenger in the 1955 sedan driven by the defendant.

Guns

membership of more than one million, long has opposed gun control measures.

The over-all bill was approved 70 to 17.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., made his first appearance on the Senate floor since the slaying of his brother Robert.

Kennedy showed up just in time to vote for the registration-licensing amendment, introduced by Sen. Joseph Tydings, D-Md. He took no part in debate and sat with his chin in his hand.

The Senate bill bans not only the mail order sales of rifles and shotguns, but also ammunition for all weapons.

The House version excludes mail order sales of ammunition for rifles and shotguns, plus rimfire .22 caliber shells.

The Senate bill would make a sentence of life imprisonment possible for anyone committing a federal crime of violence—such as rape, murder, arson, theft or kidnaping—while armed with a gun.

The House measure provides mandatory sentences for people convicted of using a gun in a federal felony, but the sentences fall short of life.

There was strong support in the House, however, for writing in the life-sentence provision.

The Senate bill also would bar over-the-counter sales of firearms to nonresidents of a state unless the states are adjoining and the laws of both permit such sales.

A buyer would have to submit an affidavit of elegibility and the seller would have to delay delivery seven days to give police a chance to object.

The House version would permit also over-the-counter sales to those who sign an affidavit that their firearm was lost, stolen or had become inoperative.

Prohibitions on sales of handguns became law earlier this year in the omnibus crime control bill.

Both the House and Senate bills would require federal licensing of dealers.

Man Posts $1,000 Bond After Secret Indictment

LISBON — George H. Sharpe, 76, of 1238 Croft St., East Liverpool, indicted secretly Tuesday by the Columbiana County grand jury on a charge of abortion, posted a $1,000 bond this morning in Common Pleas Court for arraignment Sept. 30.

One of 13 defendants indicted secretly, Sharpe is accused in connection with the miscarriage of a Parma girl.

Other secret indictment defendants who have been served with charges are:

Michael R. Ward, 21, of Lisbon, traffic manslaughter in the death of Freda Gunhold, 32, of Balmain, New South Wales, last July 2 on Route 30 five miles south of Lisbon. The state alleges he made a left turn in front of a motor scooter operated by the victim's husband, Harry N. Gunhold, 34, of Balmain.

James D. Chase, 20, Columbiana, burglary Nov. 23 at Northeast Farms, Columbiana.

Melvin Lehman, 19, Salem RD 5, (two cases) burglary Nov. 23 at Northeast Farms and burglary Jan. 11 at Crestview High School.

Robbert E. Smith, 37, of Newell, W. Va., soliciting for sodomy.

David J. McFaul, 27, of 422 Grove Alley, East Liverpool, non-support of minor children.

Robert Means, 18, of Y. & O. Rd., East Liverpool, traffic manslaughter in death of Ricky Jolly, East Liverpool RD 1, June 21 on Route 11 (the Freeway) two-tenths of a mile south of the East Liverpool city limits. The victim, 16, was a passenger in the 1955 sedan driven by the defendant.

membership of more than one million, long has opposed gun control measures.

The over-all bill was approved 70 to 17.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., made his first appearance on the Senate floor since the slaying of his brother Robert.

Kennedy showed up just in time to vote for the registration-licensing amendment, introduced by Sen. Joseph Tydings, D-Md. He took no part in debate and sat with his chin in his hand.

The Senate bill bans not only the mail order sales of rifles and shotguns, but also ammunition for all weapons.

The Senate bill would make a sentence of life imprisonment possible for anyone committing a federal crime of violence—such as rape, murder, arson, theft or kidnaping—while armed with a gun.

The House measure provides mandatory sentences for people convicted of using a gun in a federal felony, but the sentences fall short of life.

There was strong support in the House, however, for writing in the life-sentence provision.

The Senate bill also would bar over-the-counter sales of firearms to nonresidents of a state unless the states are adjoining and the laws of both permit such sales.

A buyer would have to submit an affidavit of elegibility and the seller would have to delay delivery seven days to give police a chance to object.

The House version would permit also over-the-counter sales to those who sign an affidavit that their firearm was lost, stolen or had become inoperative.

Prohibitions on sales of handguns became law earlier this year in the omnibus crime control bill.

Both the House and Senate bills would require federal licensing of dealers.

At Midland Kick-Off Dinner

Crucible Makes Donation To Launch UF Campaign

The Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Corp. presented its annual gift to the Midland United Fund during a kick - off dinner sponsored by the firm Wednesday night at the Crucible Management Club in Industry.

Crucible's gift this year was $20,300. The campaign opens today with a goal of $78,157.

Some 49 volunteers, division chairmen and others attended the dinner.

Rex M. Crawford, Midland Area general chairman, presided. He introduced John P. Strand, division president and host, and A. J. Hendry, Beaver County UF general chairman.

Crawford also introduced his three co-chairmen — Al Lona, president of Local 1212, United Steelworkers of America; Dan Borato, area contractor, and C. L. Finley of the First National Bank of Midland.

Hendry told of gains made in charitable donations in the last 35 years.

HE SAID 35 years ago when people were buying their first cars, radios and refrigerators, the United Fund was started by people who were tired of giving to so many organizations.

Groups bonded together and started the original Community Chest so they could give to good causes and divide the money equally.

Much of the money years ago was paid to the campaign workers.

Now, rather than costing 20 or 30 per cent, it only costs 4 per cent for help. He said he hopes the Midland area can exceed its goal of $78,157.

Crawford said he realizes the goal is high and though every year it seems hard, the workers always manage to raise the amount.

DIVISION chairmen, area chairmen and co-chairmen include: C. A. Whittacre, building trades; Robert Laughlin, transportation; A. C. Reading and Earl Stang, manufacturing; Earl Rankin, retail trade, professional, special gifts and publicity; Lester Smith Jr., banks and savings and loans.

Henderson, Midland education; Leonard Ware, Midland residential; Richard McHaffie, government; Olen Gibson, area chairmen: Mrs. Jean Gibson, Fairview; Joseph Kadilak, Ohioville; Richard Kampian, Meadowbrook; Frank Meredith, general chairman, and Richard Temple, Western Beaver education.

IN-PLANT drives are expected to get underway this week at Crucible, the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co., and other manufacturing firms. The in-plant drives will end Oct. 4.

The "residential blitz" will be held Oct. 14, following completion of the in-plant solicitations.

Report meetings have been scheduled for Sept. 30, Oct. 14, and Oct. 28 at the conference room of the Crucible Employee Services building at Midland Ave. and 9th St.

A UF movie, "Fair Share Suzy," was screened. Richard Fusco, executive director of the United Funds of Beaver County, explained the use of campaign supplies.

The manufacturing division, with a goal of $69,091, has the highest goal of the 15 divisions in the Midland campaign. Other divisional goals are building trades, $1,110; transportation, $200; retail trade, real estate and insurance, $1,215; professional and special gifts, $524; banks and savings and loans, $835; clubs and organizations, $85; Midland education, $700; Midland residential, $155; government, $250; Ohioville Borough area, $110, and Industry Borough area, $160.

DIVISION goals, plus county credit of $3,244 from firms who donate county-wide, total $78,157.

In addition to aiding 40 UF agencies, funds raised also assist 14 local groups including the Midland area Hot Stove League. Funds pledged by non-Midland area residents who are employed in Midland are sent to charities in the residents area.

At Midland Kick-Off Dinner

Crucible Makes Donation To Launch UF Campaign

The Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Corp. presented its annual gift to the Midland United Fund during a kick - off dinner sponsored by the firm Wednesday night at the Crucible Management Club in Industry.

Crucible's gift this year was $20,300. The campaign opens today with a goal of $78,157.

Some 49 volunteers, division chairmen and others attended the dinner.

Rex M. Crawford, Midland Area general chairman, presided. He introduced John P. Strand, division president and host, and A. J. Hendry, Beaver County UF general chairman.

Crawford also introduced his three co-chairmen — Al Lona, president of Local 1212, United Steelworkers of America; Dan Borato, area contractor, and C. L. Finley of the First National Bank of Midland.

Hendry told of gains made in charitable donations in the last 35 years.

HE SAID 35 years ago when people were buying their first cars, radios and refrigerators, the United Fund was started by people who were tired of giving to so many organizations.

Groups bonded together and started the original Community Chest so they could give to good causes and divide the money equally.

Much of the money years ago was paid to the campaign workers.

Now, rather than costing 20 or 30 per cent, it only costs 4 per cent for help. He said he hopes the Midland area can exceed its goal of $78,157.

Crawford said he realizes the goal is high and though every year it seems hard, the workers always manage to raise the amount.

DIVISION chairmen, area chairmen and co-chairmen include: C. A. Whittacre, building trades; Robert Laughlin, transportation; A. C. Reading and Earl Stang, manufacturing; Earl Rankin, retail trade, professional, special gifts and publicity; Lester Smith Jr., banks and savings and loans.

Jules Jacob, clubs and organizations; Dr. C. P. Henderson, Midland education; Leonard Ware, Midland residential; Richard McHaffie, government; Olen Gibson, area chairmen: Mrs. Jean Gibson, Fairview; Joseph Kadilak, Ohioville; Richard Kamplan, Meadowbrook; Frank Meredith, general chairman, and Richard Temple, Western Beaver education.

Mrs. Helen Graham, area chairman; Joseph Hockenberry, Kenneth Janke, Robert Safford and Ned Nutz, Industry and Ohio View; Mrs. Garnet Sheare, Mrs. Lucy McKinney and Mrs. Dixie Berovich, Mickey's Road; Mrs. E. R. Rankin and Mrs. Delores Kelley, Sunrise Hills.

IN-PLANT drives are expected to get underway this week at Crucible, the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co., and other manufacturing firms. The in-plant drives will end Oct. 4.

The "residential blitz" will be held Oct. 14, following completion of the in-plant solicitations.

Report meetings have been scheduled for Sept. 30, Oct. 14, and Oct. 28 at the conference room of the Crucible Employee Services building at Midland Ave. and 9th St.

A UF movie, "Fair Share Suzy," was screened. Richard Fusco, executive director of the United Funds of Beaver County, explained the use of campaign supplies.

The manufacturing division, with a goal of $69,091, has the highest goal of the 15 divisions in the Midland campaign. Other divisional goals are building trades, $1,110; transportation, $200; retail trade, real estate and insurance, $1,215; professional and special gifts, $524; banks and savings and loans, $835; clubs and organizations, $85; Midland education, $700; Midland residential, $155; government, $250; Ohioville Borough area, $110, and Industry Borough area, $160.

DIVISION goals, plus county credit of $3,244 from firms who donate county-wide, total $78,157.

In addition to aiding 40 UF agencies, funds raised also assist 14 local groups including the Midland area Hot Stove League. Funds pledged by non-Midland area residents who are employed in Midland are sent to charities in the residents area.

'Peaceful Home In Secure America'

Nixon Makes Special Bid For Vote Of Servicemen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is making a special pitch for servicemen's vote, pledging to bring them back "to a peaceful home in a secure America."

The Republican presidential candidate has bought full-page advertisements in three specialized newspapers which claim about 485,000 servicemen readers around the world.

The ads, appearing in the current issues of the nonofficial Army Times, Navy Times and Air Force Times, quote Nixon's declaration that "it is essential that we end this war, and end it quickly."

"Under the heading, "Your Help is Needed," the appeal says:

"Richard Nixon and Gov. (Spiro T.) Agnew have served actively in the defense of our country. They know your problems; know your double value as citizens and as part of our vital defense system.

"They ask your vote and your interest to help restore decency and stability to our national life and clear a better society for all.

"Your vote will also help determine whose hands will steer the defenses of our 'ship of state'.

"Richard Nixon and Gov. Agnew are pledged to renew the kind of home and country you want to return to. They are pledged to bring you back to a peaceful home in a secure America.

"Your vote is all we need."

At the bottom, servicemen are invited to contribute money to the Nixon-Agnew campaign. The advertisement includes a form to accompany donations.

Long-time observers said they were unable to recall any similar paid ad aimed directly at the soldier vote in a presidential campaign.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic presidential candidate, has issued position papers in which he has outlined what he would do for servicemen.

Among other things, Humphrey has said "the military pay system is antiquated and needs thorough overhaul to assure that compensation and benefits for uniformed personnel are more equitable and more comparable with standards in civilian life."

Humphrey also has suggested better housing for servicemen and their families, an improved school system for children of service families and updated medical and hospital services.

Meanwhile, the Defense Department was gearing up its customary drive to stimulate a big servicemen's vote.

Traditionally, the Pentagon get-out-the-vote campaign is couched in nonpartisan terms.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford has just filmed a special message to the 3.5 million Americans in uniform, warning that failure to vote "makes freedom grow flabby."

In Speech At Boston

Humphrey Evokes Spirit Of JFK Against Nixon

BOSTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey, eagerly welcoming the public embraces of two heroes of dissident Democrats, today evoked the spirit of the late John F. Kennedy against Richard M. Nixon.

After a scheduled introduction by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, the vice president, in remarks prepared for a rally, said of the Republican presidential candidate:

"We know the man Jack Kennedy defeated in 1960—and we know what he stood for then—and we know what he stands for now."

After his speech in Boston's downtown shopping area, Humphrey's schedule had him traveling halfway across the country to South Dakota for an appearance with Sen. George S. McGovern, who challenged the vice president for the Democratic presidential nomination in Chicago.

Humphrey's stops today marked the start of a three-week whirlwind tour in which he hopes to overcome a wide margin the polls say Nixon has built up in the early stages of the campaign. The public appearances with McGovern and Kennedy are seen as a step toward unifying the Democratic party.

He also is expected to visit Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio, California, Washington and Oregon.

Humphrey, recalling that President Kennedy closed his campaign against Nixon in a speech in Boston, repeated these words of the late president:

"This race is a contest between the comfortable and the concerned, between those who believe that we should rest and lie at anchor and drift, and between those who want to move this country forward in the 1960's."

Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson, said Humphrey, "got America moving again."

Now, eight years later, Humphrey said, the American people must decide, "do we have the courage, do we have the common sense to keep this country moving forward?"

Humphrey again hammered at Nixon's opposition to a ratification this year of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, even though he has endorsed the pact.

Humphrey charged that the failure to ratify the treaty this year "could mean the death of the treaty forever" and he added:

"I don't think we can afford to play political games with anything as serious as nuclear war —with anything as serious as the possible incineration of this planet."

Humphrey asserted that all those who supported President Kennedy and all those who worked for the party the last eight years still have a stake in the 1968 election despite the interparty feuding.

Arabs, Israel Rap U.N. On Cease-Fire

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Both Arabs and Israelis are openly dissatisfied with another Security Council resolution insisting that they observe the 15-month-old cease-fire.

The 15-nation council adopted the resolution 14-0 Wednesday, ending a two-week debate on Israeli and Egyptian complaints of cease-fire violations. Algeria abstained from the vote.

The resolution insisted that the council's 1967 cease-fire call "must be rigorously respected," and urged all parties to cooperate fully with Gunnar Jarring of Sweden, U.N. special representative to the Middle East, "in the speedy fulfillment" of his mission to seek a peaceful settlement of the June 1967 Arab-Israeli war.

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah said the action did not satisfy Israel's complaints that Egypt killed two Israeli soldiers and captured a third in an ambush Aug. 26, and started an exchange of fire across the Suez Canal Sept. 8.

He declared that in failing to condemn "Egyptian attacks" and demand the return of the captured soldier, the council had followed a double standard, discriminated against Israel and left it "disappointed again and disenchanted."

Tekoah said Israel would "continue to cooperate with Ambassador Jarring." But he did not promise it would fulfill the council's call for Israeli withdrawal from occupied Arab territories along with Arab acknowledgment of Israel's right to exist. He conditioned Israel's observance of the cease-fire on Egypt doing likewise, saying Israel would continue to fulfill its obligations to protect its citizens."

Mohamed Awad El-Kony of Egypt, which has denied ambushing the Israelis and complained that Israel started the exchange of fire, said Egypt had always indicated its readiness to cooperate with Jarring and implement the council resolution.

In Speech At Boston

Humphrey Evokes Spirit Of JFK Against Nixon

BOSTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey, eagerly welcoming the public embraces of two heroes of dissident Democrats, today evoked the spirit of the late John F. Kennedy against Richard M. Nixon.

After a scheduled introduction by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, the vice president, in remarks prepared for a rally, said of the Republican presidential candidate:

"We know the man Jack Kennedy defeated in 1960—and we know what he stood for then—and we know what he stands for now."

After his speech in Boston's downtown shopping area, Humphrey's schedule had him traveling halfway across the country to South Dakota for an appearance with Sen. George S. McGovern, who challenged the vice president for the Democratic presidential nomination in Chicago.

Humphrey's stops today marked the start of a three-week whirlwind tour in which he hopes to overcome a wide margin the polls say Nixon has built up in the early stages of the campaign. The public appearances with McGovern and Kennedy are seen as a step toward unifying the Democratic party.

He also is expected to visit Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio, California, Washington and Oregon.

Humphrey, recalling that President Kennedy closed his campaign against Nixon in a speech in Boston, repeated these words of the late president:

"This race is a contest between the comfortable and the concerned, between those who believe that we should rest and lie at anchor and drift, and between those who want to move this country forward in the 1960's."

Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson, said Humphrey, "got America moving again."

Now, eight years later, Humphrey said, the American people must decide, "do we have the courage, do we have the common sense to keep this country moving forward?"

Humphrey again hammered at Nixon's opposition to a ratification this year of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, even though he has endorsed the pact.

Humphrey charged that the failure to ratify the treaty this year "could mean the death of the treaty forever" and he added:

"I don't think we can afford to play political games with anything as serious as nuclear war —with anything as serious as the possible incineration of this planet."

Humphrey asserted that all those who supported President Kennedy and all those who worked for the party the last eight years still have a stake in the 1968 election despite the interparty feuding.

The accident, timed at 8 a.m., resulted in moderate damage to the auto.

The girl was not injured.

Rats India Problem, And It Could Be Cats

CHANDIGARH, India (AP) — India needs a pied piper.

A foood seminar here here was told that if the country's estimated 4.8 billion rats were killed India's 500 million humans would each get an extra five chapatis (pancakes) per day.

One participant suggested importing cats but others said over-population of cats would become the next problem.

New Continuance Given Man Cited For Assault On Officer

Because several defense witnesses failed to appear, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today "reluctantly" granted a continuance until next Wednesday in the case of a man charged with assault and battery on a police officer Sept. 8.

The continuance was requested by counsel for Gary Ice, 23, of Ravine St., also charged with resisting an officer and intoxication. Ice entered not guilty pleas this morning through his counsel, Ben H. Berman and Robert L. Simpson.

ICE WAS charged in connection with injuries suffered by Patrolman Ronald J. Brookes after he had arrested the defendant on an intoxication charge in front of a club on Dresden Ave. The patrolman suffered facial injuries and broken teeth and two of his fellow officers were hurt less seriously.

When the case was called this morning, Berman told the court a number of defense witnesses had agreed to be present at 9, but only one appeared. He said they were not under subpoena. Berman then moved for a continuance "in the interest of justice, to issue subpoenas."

About a dozen officers were present for the hearing, many of them off duty and called as witnesses for the prosecution.

SOLICITOR J. Michael Kapp opposed the motion for the continuance. He pointed out to the court Ice previously was granted two continuances — one to permit him to obtain counsel and another when his counsel was scheduled to appear in a case in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon. He remarked that the defense witnesses should have been subpoenaed and added that "the defense had ample time."

Judge Chertoff commented that the court "prepared our docket especially today so it would be free to give the defendant ample time to have his day in court." But he added if the witnesses were "needed to assure the defendant that all his rights are protected," he would grant the continuance.

"I want to afford the defendant every right to which he is entitled under the Constitution," the court commented. "Reluctantly, I am going to accede to the defendant's wish."

The United States has about 850 shoemaking firms, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Charge Is Dropped In Mistaken Identity

Solicitor J. Michael Kapp said Court Wednesday in which a Klondyke man was charged with two morals offenses was dismissed because it proved to be a case of mistaken identity on the part of the complaining witness.

Don Ingram of 1825 Harvey Ave. was charged in the two offenses which allegedly occurred on Aug. 9 in an affidavit filed by a young woman. The complaining witness gave a sworn statement yesterday to Judge Samuel M. Chertoff in which she said Ingram was not the man involved and that she had identified him mistakenly. The court then dismissed the charges.

Sir Edward Elgar composed "Pomp and Circumstance" for the coronation of Edward VIII. Laurence Housman, English writer, wrote words for it and it became one of England's best-loved songs under the title, "Land of Hope and Glory."

"Raised on prunes and proverbs" was a western expression for a person who was very fastidious and inclined to be religious.

New Mexico Voters May Pick From Seven

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — Voters in New Mexico in the 1968 general election may have the choice of seven presidential candidates on the ballot.

These would include the Democratic and Republican parties' candidates and those of five minor parties.

In New Mexico, a minor party is one whose candidate for governor receved less than 15 per cent of the total vote cast at the preceding general election.

The Prohibition and Socialist Labor parties have had candidates on New Mexico's general election ballots for many years.

Other minor parties whose presidential candidates may appear on the ballot include American Independent, Universal, and Peace and Freedom.

George Mikan 'Caged' By Youth's Question

LOUISVILLE (AP) — George Mikan,, commissioner of the American Basketball Association, recalls the time he was addressing a Boy Scout rally and answering questions afterwards.

"How many points did you score in your pro career?" one kid asked.

"I suppose about 20,000," replied Mikan.

"Gee," the kid gasped. "Didn't you ever pass the ball?"

New Continuance Given Man Cited For Assault On Officer

Because several defense witnesses failed to appear, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today "reluctantly" granted a continuance until next Wednesday in the case of a man charged with assault and battery on a police officer Sept. 8.

The continuance was requested by counsel for Gary Ice, 23, of Ravine St., also charged with resisting an officer and intoxication. Ice entered not guilty pleas this morning through his counsel, Ben H. Berman and Robert L. Simpson.

ICE WAS charged in connection with injuries suffered by Patrolman Ronald J. Brookes after he had arrested the defendant on an intoxication charge in front of a club on Dresden Ave. The patrolman suffered facial injuries and broken teeth and two of his fellow officers were hurt less seriously.

When the case was called this morning, Berman told the court a number of defense witnesses had agreed to be present at 9, but only one appeared. He said they were not under subpoena. Berman then moved for a continuance "in the interest of justice, to issue subpoenas."

About a dozen officers were present for the hearing, many of them off duty and called as witnesses for the prosecution.

SOLICITOR J. Michael Kapp opposed the motion for the continuance. He pointed out to the court Ice previously was granted two continuances — one to permit him to obtain counsel and another when his counsel was scheduled to appear in a case in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon. He remarked that the defense witnesses should have been subpoenaed and added that "the defense had ample time."

Judge Chertoff commented that the court "prepared our docket especially today so it would be free to give the defendant ample time to have his day in court." But he added if the witnesses were "needed to assure the defendant that all his rights are protected," he would grant the continuance.

"I want to afford the defendant every right to which he is entitled under the Constitution," the court commented. "Reluctantly, I am going to accede to the defendant's wish."

The United States has about 850 shoemaking firms, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Charge Is Dropped In Mistaken Identity

Solicitor J. Michael Kapp said Court Wednesday in which a Klondyke man was charged with two morals offenses was dismissed because it proved to be a case of mistaken identity on the part of the complaining witness.

Don Ingram of 1825 Harvey Ave. was charged in the two offenses which allegedly occurred on Aug. 9 in an affidavit filed by a young woman. The complaining witness gave a sworn statement yesterday to Judge Samuel M. Chertoff in which she said Ingram was not the man involved and that she had identified him mistakenly. The court then dismissed the charges.

Sir Edward Elgar composed "Pomp and Circumstance" for the coronation of Edward VIII. Laurence Housman, English writer, wrote words for it and it became one of England's best-loved songs under the title, "Land of Hope and Glory."

"Raised on prunes and proverbs" was a western expression for a person who was very fastidious and inclined to be religious.

New Mexico Voters May Pick From Seven

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — Voters in New Mexico in the 1968 general election may have the choice of seven presidential candidates on the ballot.

These would include the Democratic and Republican parties' candidates and those of five minor parties.

In New Mexico, a minor party is one whose candidate for governor receved less than 15 per cent of the total vote cast at the preceding general election.

The Prohibition and Socialist Labor parties have had candidates on New Mexico's general election ballots for many years.

Other minor parties whose presidential candidates may appear on the ballot include American Independent, Universal, and Peace and Freedom.

George Mikan 'Caged' By Youth's Question

LOUISVILLE (AP) — George Mikan, commissioner of the American Basketball Association, recalls the time he was addressing a Boy Scout rally and answering questions afterwards.

"How many points did you score in your pro career?" one kid asked.

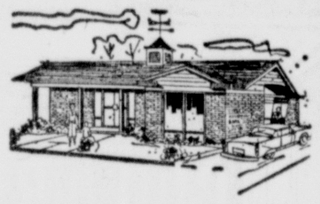

"I suppose about 20,000," replied Mikan.

"Gee," the kid gasped. "Didn't you ever pass the ball?"

HINTS FROM HELOISE

A Free Doughnut Cutter

DEAR HELOISE: I've always wished that you were my next-door neighbor so we could talk about your short cuts and bargains. I have no one around who appreciates a good bargain.

Heloise

I guess if I had a million dollars I would still cut corners.

I was so tickled over finding something free that I had to write and tell you.

I have made homemade doughnuts for years for my brood and they really enjoy them, but I had just never splurged on a doughnut cutter.

Well, today, the makers of my spray starch gave me one! The plastic cap to the can had an inner ring which is exactly the way a doughnut cutter is made.

I trimmed the outer edge even with the inner edge so they would be the same height. Presto, a perfect doughnut cutter. And all for free, too.

YOUR NEIGHBOR AT HEART.

They're the best kind. Just like your sweet words.

That's a peach of a hint and it works like a gem.

Have one of those doughnuts and a cup of coffee for me next time, shug.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Have you ever sprayed your hair with one of the foamy bathroom cleaners instead of hair spray?

I advise women to read labels before squirting stuff. Lots of it is plenty dangerous.

Sure glad it wasn't an oven cleaner, pal. You might have ended up with no hair at all. And I wouldn't consider that funny. 'Specially with the price of wigs.

I laughed at your letter, but must hasten to CAUTION everyone to be extremely careful and not get any of this fizz canned stuff in your eyes.

And don't forget: Always call your local poison control center or the emergency room at a hospital when something like this happens.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I buy whipping cream, I often use only a part of the carton.

So I whip it all and then put what I don't use in a plastic jar and freeze it.

I find it is much better to whip it before freezing.

AMELIA WALSTON.

DEAR HELOISE: Do you know of any useful or artistic ideas for using plastic detergent bottles?

I have stored away a big box full and was just wondering what could be done with them. Hate to throw them away. Got any suggestions?

K. S. R.

Come on folks, let's be a pal to our friend. Just write to Heloise in care of this paper. Sure would love to hear from you all.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I read about using the spiked bill spindle for bobbins, but I store my extra bobbins in a tall, effervescent tablet bottle.

I cut off a plastic knitting needle so it would fit into the bottle and pushed the bobbins on it. They fit nice and snug.

Then I just slid the needle and bobbins into the bottle and screwed on the cap.

The thread stays clean and I can look through the bottle to see what colored thread I have on each bobbin.

BETTY BROADBENT.

DEAR HELOISE: If you find you're out of air freshener, just put a little toilet water or cologne in a pan of water. Set it on the stove and bring to a boil. Instant air freshener!

Unauthorized 3-Hour Meeting

Columbia Rebel Students 'Raid' Campus Building

NEW YORK (AP) — Several hundred Columbia University student rebels pushed into a campus building Wednesday night for an unauthorized three-hour meeting climaxed by a noisy march around the grounds of the Ivy League school.

The students and their supporters, led by a man carrying a red flag, stormed into Schermerhorn Hall, shoving aside a campus guard who pleaded with them, "I'll lose my job."

The university had withdrawn previous permission for a campus meeting due to disruption of afternoon registration by the radical Students for a Democratic Society. The rebels unsuccessfully tried to register 28 students suspended as a result of disorders last spring which shut down the school.

Officials said registration would resume today at the university, which has an enrollment of about 25,000.

Following the night meeting Mark Rudd, SDS leader and one of the suspended students, said to a crowd of 300: "Let us march around the campus and perhaps to Cordier's residence. Cordier apparently can't stand revolutionaries. We have revolutionaries from Italy, Mexico, Canada, France, Germany and Sweden."

Andrew W. Cordier is acting university president. The six-day Conference of European and American student activists began Wednesday.

Starting to lead the march, Rudd called for revocation of the university's charter and shouted "Ho Chi Minh!" His followers picked up the chant and the march began. The crowd dispersed quietly after about an hour.

A noon rally in the center of the campus preceded the move to enroll the suspended students in the afternoon.

The suspended students were among 150 demonstrators who gathered outside the gymnasium where registration was taking place.

Ohio Democrats Slate Sessions To Reunify Party

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbus will be the site Friday of one of a series of regional conferences planned by the Democratic party in an effort to reunify party organizations before the November presidential election.

Eight other sessions involving 25 states also are planned Friday and Saturday, according to Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien.

Attending the conferences with state and local officials will be leaders of the pre - convention campaigns of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and the men he defeated for the party's presidential nomination, Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy and George S. McGovern.

Cardinal O'Boyle Penalizes 11 Of Catholic Priests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, calling dissenting Catholic priests in one by one, has penalized at least 11 of them for refusing to retract their stand on Pope Paul's birth control encyclical.

The penalties Wednesday ranged from complete suspension of one priest, the Rev. John L. Fenlon of nearby Rockville, Md., to prohibition against hearing confessions.

Cardinal O'Boyle called in 18 of the 44 priests and was to interview most of the others today and Friday.

He ordered the meetings after the priests reaffirmed their stand Saturday that Catholic couples under some circumstances may be guided by their consciences in deciding to use artificial contraceptive methods.

The 11 full and partial suspensions were reported by the Rev. John E. Corrigan, chairman of the Association of Washington Priests, who himself was forbidden from hearing confessions or teaching on any aspect of birth control.

Release Of Funds For New Prison To Be Requested

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The major item of business before the State Controlling Board today was a request for release of $25,802,208 for construction of a new state penitentiary at Lucasville.

Contractors and State Architect Carl Bentz agreed during a series of meetings on the price for the maximum security prison after deleting some alternate proposals from specifications to trim costs.

Original bids totaled $28.5 million.

Facilities deleted under alternate proposals, but which officials pointed out could be added later, include an industrial building, honor dormitory, gymnasium, garage wing, small dining room and a sewage treatment plant.

Scioto County commissioners plan to build a sewage treatment plant with some $400,000 in assistance from the state.

The penitentiary will be built with funds from a bond issue for prison construction.

Unauthorized 3-Hour Meeting

Columbia Rebel Students 'Raid' Campus Building

NEW YORK (AP) — Several hundred Columbia University student rebels pushed into a campus building Wednesday night for an unauthorized three-hour meeting climaxed by a noisy march around the grounds of the Ivy League school.

The students and their supporters, led by a man carrying a red flag, stormed into Schermerhorn Hall, shoving aside a campus guard who pleaded with them, "I'll lose my job."

The university had withdrawn previous permission for a campus meeting due to disruption of afternoon registration by the radical Students for a Democratic Society. The rebels unsuccessfully tried to register 28 students suspended as a result of disorders last spring which shut down the school.

Officials said registration would resume today at the university, which has an enrollment of about 25,000.

Following the night meeting Mark Rudd, SDS leader and one of the suspended students, said to a crowd of 300: "Let us march around the campus and perhaps to Cordier's residence. Cordier apparently can't stand revolutionaries. We have revolutionaries from Italy, Mexico, Canada, France, Germany and Sweden."

Andrew W. Cordier is acting university president. The six-day Conference of European and American student activists began Wednesday.

Starting to lead the march, Rudd called for revocation of the university's charter and shouted "Ho Chi Minh!" His followers picked up the chant and the march began. The crowd dispersed quietly after about an hour.

A noon rally in the center of the campus preceded the move to enroll the suspended students in the afternoon.

The suspended students were among 150 demonstrators who gathered outside the gymnasium where registration was taking place.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbus will be the site Friday of one of a series of regional conferences planned by the Democratic party in an effort to reunify party organizations before the November presidential election.

Eight other sessions involving 25 states also are planned Friday and Saturday, according to Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien.

Cardinal O'Boyle Penalizes 11 Of Catholic Priests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, calling dissenting Catholic priests in one by one, has penalized at least 11 of them for refusing to retract their stand on Pope Paul's birth control encyclical.

The penalties Wednesday ranged from complete suspension of one priest, the Rev. John L. Fenlon of nearby Rockville, Md., to prohibition against hearing confessions.

Cardinal O'Boyle called in 18 of the 44 priests and was to interview most of the others today and Friday.

He ordered the meetings after the priests reaffirmed their stand Saturday that Catholic couples under some circumstances may be guided by their consciences in deciding to use artificial contraceptive methods.

The 11 full and partial suspensions were reported by the Rev. John E. Corrigan, chairman of the Association of Washington Priests, who himself was forbidden from hearing confessions or teaching on any aspect of birth control.

Release Of Funds For New Prison To Be Requested

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The major item of business before the State Controlling Board today was a request for release of $25,802,208 for construction of a new state penitentiary at Lucasville.

Contractors and State Architect Carl Bentz agreed during a series of meetings on the price for the maximum security prison after deleting some alternate proposals from specifications to trim costs.

Original bids totaled $28.5 million.

Facilities deleted under alternate proposals, but which officials pointed out could be added later, include an industrial building, honor dormitory, gymnasium, garage wing, small dining room and a sewage treatment plant.

Scioto County commissioners plan to build a sewage treatment plant with some $400,000 in assistance from the state.

The penitentiary will be built with funds from a bond issue for prison construction.

Niles McKinley, which has not lost a home football game since Youngstown Rayen turned the trick in the second game of the 1959 season, is fearful that the streak may end Saturday.

The Bulldogs of Canton McKinley will appear at Niles, and the battle should be ferocious. Canton McKinley opened with a 28-0 win over Barberton and last week blanked Warren Harding 20-0. Niles bombed Cleveland East 55-6 and got by Rayen 24-0.

EAST LIVERPOOL, while not having a streak in the class of Niles, has done well at home recently, rolling up 17 in a row. Steubenville, in 1965, was the last visitor to win at Patterson Field, 28-18.

Warren Western Reserve, which will appear here Oct. 12, will be a formidable foe. The Raiders whipped Ashtabula 56-0 in their opener and followed with a 38-0 crushing of Akron South. The Raider defense allowed only three first downs in each game. The offense, with eight starters returning, also has been impressive.

Aside from the above-mentioned teams, Northeastern Ohio is full of grid powers so far early in the season. Mentor, which was 9-1 last season and then knocked off Massillon in the opener this year, must certainly be considered. Struthers, which crushed Alliance 34-7 and then nipped Cardinal Mooney 7-6, has won 14 games in a row. And in Central Ohio, defending champion Upper Arlington has opened with 89-0 and 70-0 wins.

THE AP AND UPI state rankings won't start for several weeks, yet, but two county teams should draw some notice in Class A circles if they keep up their winning ways. These would be Southern Local and Leetonia, which handily won their first two games. Mineral Ridge of the Inter-County League, which topped Crestview 20-0 and Greenford 68-14, is another Class A power.

MIDLAND'S RICH MAHURT, a sophomore at Purdue, has earned a starting cornerback spot on the powerful Boilermaker club.

Rival Coaches' Views Differ

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

"We'll be the poorest team East Liverpool will face all year", says Berea Mid-Park head football coach Richard Lowry.

The truth about the Berea Meteors, who invade Patterson Field tomorrow night at 7:45, is undoubtedly somewhere between these two extremes. The Meteors are 2-0 this season, with wins over Rocky River, 30-13, and Westlake, 42-19, but went only 5-5 last year including a loss to Salem.

Lowry is quite familiar with East Liverpool, for several reasons. At Baldwin - Wallace College as an undergrad, Lowry was a roommate of Potter trainer Frank Dawson. Tom Watts, son of Wade Watts, who was head coach at East Liverpool from 1949-52, and Bud Myers, who played here in the late 1950s before going on to Findlay, are assistants on Lowry's staff. "East Liverpool plays a tougher brand of football", Lowry says. "The players are tougher. We draw from a suburban area."

A fast-growing suburban area, he might add. Enrollment at Berea is about 1,700, up from 1,147 last year. The school is a new one, and undoubtedly getting better every season, the reason for McNea's comparison to Warren Western Reserve, which came out of obscurity to down the Potters 22-0 last season.

Quarterback is Brad Baum, 160, left halfback Jerry Freund 170, and brothers Bob and Jack Koran, 150, fullback and right half. Bob, 160, is the team's leading rusher. The Meteors have passed extensively in the first two games.

Potter practices have been good this week, it's reported, despite McNea's confinement to Youngstown Northside Hospital with pleurisy. McNea is under doctor's orders to remain in bed until next week, but is apparently feeling better.

Guard Lou Volino suffered a possible concussion against Woodrow Wilson, and is a doubtful starter tomorrow. Halfback Tom Chambers is also doubtful with a knee injury. Nelson (Sonny) Clark, the other halfback had flu earlier in the week, but should be ready. Herb Purton will team with Clark, Jim Musuraca and quarterback Dan Cunningham in the backfield if Chambers isn't ready, and Jim Moore or Cunningham will punt if Chambers can't.

Rick Shawke would pair with Denny Brennan at guard if Volino can't play, Jim (Moose) Jones will be at center, Stanley Ice and Don Cochran at tackles and John Johnson and Jerry Christian at ends. Musuraca, Ice, Jones, Cochran and Christian form the defensive line, with Floyd (Bub) Cranston playing middle guard for Jones in certain defensive alignments.

Lowry says Berea will fare worse than Youngstown Woodrow Wilson, a 52-0 loser here last week. McNea says he is afraid Berea will pull an upset. Potter fans hope that both coaches are wrong.

ABOUT 60 ATTENDED a graduation program for those boys leaving the Little League Wednesday night at the Travelers Hotel. Lawrence Zollinger, treasurer, (extreme left) presents a certificate to Bob Boughner representing the American League While Laird Christen, American League president, places a pin on Doug Talkington of the National League. During the program, a special plaque, shown by Scott Seiferth (center) was presented to honor Dave McDonald, commissioner of the local Little League. McDonald, who is ill at home, has been serving the Little League in some capacity for the past 16 years.

Grid Yogis Split Up, Clutter Picks 3 Upsets

The Review Grid Yogis, not happy with the good results last week, came up with numerous differences of opinion this week, with only three unanimous choices.

Everyone picked East Liverpool over Berea Mid - Park, Toronto over Wellsville and the Rams over the Steelers.

There were several 6-1 splits, with Ed Clutter faithfully backing Oak Glen against Follansbee, Bob Shaffer going with Midland against Beaver, Rose Nuzzo taking Stanton against Southern Local, and Clutter going out on a limb with the Browns over the Cowboys and Oklahoma over Notre Dame.

Beaver Local, despite an 0-2 mark, was favored by five Yogis, with only Shaffer and Nuzzo taking Springfield Jefferson, likewise 0-2. The Cincinnati Bengals produced a 4-3 split, with Nuzzo, Clutter and Pete Weaver picking the Buffalo Bills.

Leader Chuck Campbell, Turk Pierce and Bob Duffy all stuck to the consensus.

Jacksonville Sweeps Jets For IL Title

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets and the Toledo Mud Hens won't see big Steve Renko of Jacksonville again before the International League opens a new season next April—and even that will be too soon.

It was Renko—a late-season addition to the Mets' pitching staff—who gave up four hits in 6 1-3 innings for a 7 3 victory over the Jets in the final doubleheader of the regular season that knocked Columbus out of the running and gave the pennant to Toledo.

But Renko then stopped Toledo 5-1 on a three-hitter that clinched the best-of-5 semifinal playoff series for fourth-place Jacksonville over the Mud Hens by a 3-1 margin.

Wednesday night, the 6-foot-5, 235-pounder limited Columbus to six hits as Jacksonville whipped the Jets 3-1 and swept the best-of-7 final series—the first time a fourth-place team has completed such a sweep and the Mets' first playoff title.

Columbus took the lead in the sixth inning when George Spriggs singled stole second, took third on Bernie Smith's single and stole home. But the Mets tied it in the same inning on Bob Pfeil's homer and won it in the seventh on Danny Dyer's two-run homer.

Faces Stottlemyre Today

Rain Delays McLain's Bid For 31st Victory

By HAL BOCK

A sympathetic cloudburst gave the Detroit Tigers an extra day to recover from their first pennant celebration in 23 years.

The Tigers, who wrapped up the American League flag and celebrated with champagne showers the night before had their game against the New York Yankees postponed by rain Wednesday night.

That was just fine with the bleary-eyed town of Detroit which went wild Tuesday night when the Tigers clinched their first flag since 1945.

The rainout delayed Denny McLain's bid for a 31st victory. McLain, hoping to match the total reached by Robert "Lefty" Grove in 1931, was to go against 20-game winner Mel Stottlemyre in today's makeup game.

Elsewhere in the American League Wednesday, Boston shut out Baltimore 4-0, and Minnesota split a doubleheader with California, winning the first game 4-3 and dropping the nightcap by the same score. Washington's game at Cleveland was also rained out.

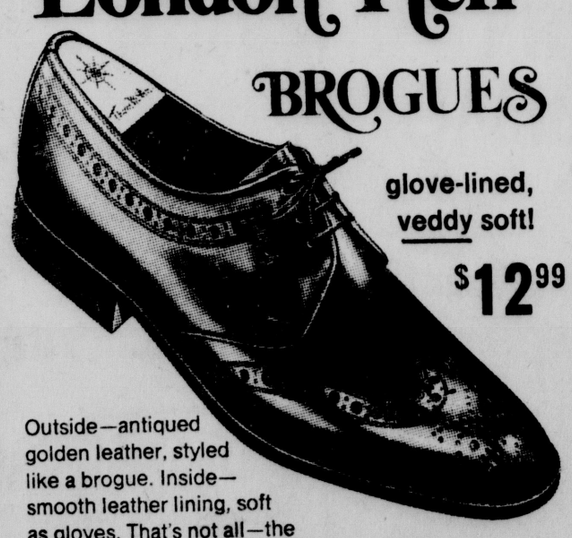

Roger Nelson pitched six hitless innings against Boston before the Red Sox knocked him out with a three-run flurry in the seventh and went on to beat the Orioles.

Nelson retired 18 straight batters and struck out 13 after walking the leadoff man in the first inning. But Mike Andrews opened the seventh with a single. A walk to Carl Yastrzemski and Ken Harrelson's single loaded the bases.

Reggie Smith singled for two runs knocking out Nelson and the Sox added another when Joe Foy drew a bases-loaded walk against reliever Pete Richert. Smith's sacrifice fly brought home another run in the eighth. Dick Ellsworth and Lee Stange combined for the seven-hit shutout.

CORNELL AERONAUTICAL LABORATORIES has suggested an Urbmobile system for mass transit of individual vehicles which also work on regular highways and streets. It's a four-passenger car powered by a 40 h.p. electric motor. It works on any street, but drive it on an automated rail guideway and it gets power from a third rail, has computer controlled bumper to bumper traffic at a steady 60 mph. Sounds like a plan worth some more study and cash!

POWER WINDOWS ON CARS ARE INJURING many children, according to a government report. Children are losing fingers and sometimes they even get strangled when widows close during play in unattended cars with power windows. One answer is to wire power windows so they will work only when the ignition key is "on".

Niles McKinley, which has not lost a home football game since Youngstown Rayen turned the trick in the second game of the 1959 season, is fearful that the streak may end Saturday.

The Bulldogs of Canton McKinley will appear at Niles, and the battle should be ferocious. Canton McKinley opened with a 28-0 win over Barberton and last week blanked Warren Harding 20-0. Niles bombed Cleveland East 55-6 and got by Rayen 24-0.

EAST LIVERPOOL, while not having a streak in the class of Niles, has done well at home recently, rolling up 17 in a row. Steubenville, in 1965, was the last visitor to win at Patterson Field, 28-18.

Warren Western Reserve, which will appear here Oct. 12, will be a formidable foe. The Raiders whipped Ashtabula 56-0 in their opener and followed with a 38-0 crushing of Akron South. The Raider defense allowed only three first downs in each game. The offense, with eight starters returning, also has been impressive.

Aside from the above-mentioned teams, Northeastern Ohio is full of grid powers so far early in the season. Mentor, which was 9-1 last season and then knocked off Massillon in the opener this year, must certainly be considered. Struthers, which crushed Alliance 34-7 and then nipped Cardinal Mooney 7-6, has won 14 games in a row. And in Central Ohio, defending champion Upper Arlington has opened with 89-0 and 70-0 wins.

THE AP AND UPI state rankings won't start for several weeks, yet, but two county teams should draw some notice in Class A circles if they keep up their winning ways. These would be Southern Local and Leetonia, which handily won their first two games. Mineral Ridge of the Inter-County League, which topped Crestview 20-0 and Greenford 68-14, is another Class A power.

MIDLAND'S RICH MAHURT, a sophomore at Purdue, has earned a starting cornerback spot on the powerful Boilermaker club.

Rival Coaches' Views Differ

"We'll be the poorest team East Liverpool will face all year", says Berea Mid-Park head football coach Richard Lowry.

The truth about the Berea Meteors, who invade Patterson Field tomorrow night at 7:45, is undoubtedly somewhere between these two extremes. The Meteors are 2-0 this season, with wins over Rocky River, 30-13, and Westlake, 42-19, but went only 5-5 last year including a loss to Salem.

Lowry is quite familiar with East Liverpool, for several reasons. At Baldwin - Wallace College as an undergrad, Lowry was a roommate of Potter trainer Frank Dawson. Tom Watts, son of Wade Watts, who was head coach at East Liverpool from 1949-52, and Bud Myers, who played here in the late 1950s before going on to Findlay, are assistants on Lowry's staff. "East Liverpool plays a tougher brand of football", Lowry says. "The players are tougher. We draw from a suburban area."

A fast-growing suburban area, he might add. Enrollment at Berea is about 1,700, up from 1,147 last year. The school is a new one, and undoubtedly getting better every season, the reason for McNea's comparison to Warren Western Reserve, which came out of obscurity to down the Potters 22-0 last season.

Quarterback is Brad Baum, 160, left halfback Jerry Freund 170, and brothers Bob and Jack Koran, 150, fullback and right half. Bob, 160, is the team's leading rusher. The Meteors have passed extensively in the first two games.

Potter practices have been good this week, it's reported, despite McNea's confinement to Youngstown Northside Hospital with pleurisy. McNea is under doctor's orders to remain in bed until next week, but is apparently feeling better.

Guard Lou Volino suffered a possible concussion against Woodrow Wilson, and is a doubtful starter tomorrow. Halfback Tom Chambers is also doubtful with a knee injury. Nelson (Sonny) Clark, the other halfback had flu earlier in the week, but should be ready. Herb Purton will team with Clark, Jim Musuraca and quarterback Dan Cunningham in the backfield if Chambers isn't ready, and Jim Moore or Cunningham will punt if Chambers can't.

Rick Shawke would pair with Denny Brennan at guard if Volino can't play, Jim (Moose) Jones will be at center, Stanley Ice and Don Cochran at tackles and John Johnson and Jerry Christian at ends. Musuraca, Ice, Jones, Cochran and Christian form the defensive line, with Floyd (Bub) Cranston playing middle guard for Jones in certain defensive alignments.

Lowry says Berea will fare worse than Youngstown Woodrow Wilson, a 52-0 loser here last week. McNea says he is afraid Berea will pull an upset. Potter fans hope that both coaches are wrong.

Grid Yogis Split Up, Clutter Picks 3 Upsets

The Review Grid Yogis, not happy with the good results last week, came up with numerous differences of opinion this week, with only three unanimous choices.

Everyone picked East Liverpool over Berea Mid - Park, Toronto over Wellsville and the Rams over the Steelers.

There were several 6-1 splits, with Ed Clutter faithfully backing Oak Glen against Follansbee, Bob Shaffer going with Midland against Beaver, Rose Nuzzo taking Stanton against Southern Local, and Clutter going out on a limb with the Browns over the Cowboys and Oklahoma over Notre Dame.

Beaver Local, despite an 0-2 mark, was favored by five Yogis, with only Shaffer and Nuzzo taking Springfield Jefferson, likewise 0-2. The Cincinnati Bengals produced a 4-3 split, with Nuzzo, Clutter and Pete Weaver picking the Buffalo Bills.

Leader Chuck Campbell, Turk Pierce and Bob Duffy all stuck to the consensus.

Jacksonville Sweeps Jets For IL Title

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets and the Toledo Mud Hens won't see big Steve Renko of Jacksonville again before the International League opens a new season next April—and even that will be too soon.

It was Renko—a late-season addition to the Mets' pitching staff—who gave up four hits in 6 1-3 innings for a 7 3 victory over the Jets in the final doubleheader of the regular season that knocked Columbus out of the running and gave the pennant to Toledo.

But Renko then stopped Toledo 5-1 on a three-hitter that clinched the best-of-5 semifinal playoff series for fourth-place Jacksonville over the Mud Hens by a 3-1 margin.

Wednesday night, the 6-foot-5, 235-pounder limited Columbus to six hits as Jacksonville whipped the Jets 3-1 and swept the best-of-7 final series—the first time a fourth-place team has completed such a sweep and the Mets' first playoff title.

Columbus took the lead in the sixth inning when George Spriggs singled stole second, took third on Bernie Smith's single and stole home. But the Mets tied it in the same inning on Bob Pfeil's homer and won it in the seventh on Danny Dyer's two-run homer.

Faces Stottlemyre Today

Rain Delays McLain's Bid For 31st Victory

By HAL BOCK

A sympathetic cloudburst gave the Detroit Tigers an extra day to recover from their first pennant celebration in 23 years.

The Tigers, who wrapped up the American League flag and celebrated with champagne showers the night before had their game against the New York Yankees postponed by rain Wednesday night.

That was just fine with the bleary-eyed town of Detroit which went wild Tuesday night when the Tigers clinched their first flag since 1945.

The rainout delayed Denny McLain's bid for a 31st victory. McLain, hoping to match the total reached by Robert "Lefty" Grove in 1931, was to go against 20-game winner Mel Stottlemyre in today's makeup game.

Elsewhere in the American League Wednesday, Boston shut out Baltimore 4-0, and Minnesota split a doubleheader with California, winning the first game 4-3 and dropping the nightcap by the same score. Washington's game at Cleveland was also rained out.

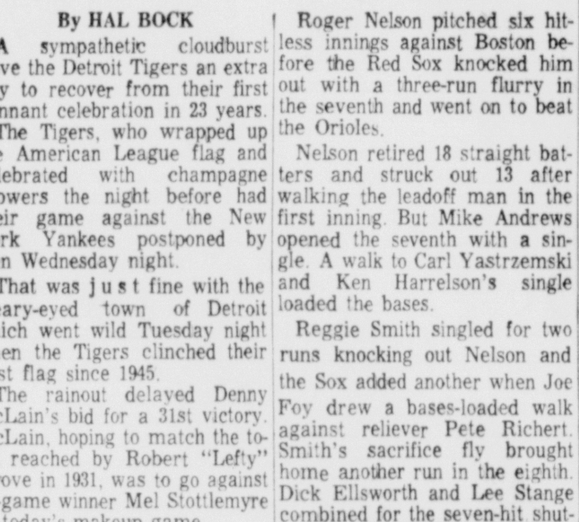

Roger Nelson pitched six hitless innings against Boston before the Red Sox knocked him out with a three-run flurry in the seventh and went on to beat the Orioles.

Nelson retired 18 straight batters and struck out 13 after walking the leadoff man in the first inning. But Mike Andrews opened the seventh with a single. A walk to Carl Yastrzemski and Ken Harrelson's single loaded the bases.

Reggie Smith singled for two runs knocking out Nelson and the Sox added another when Joe Foy drew a bases-loaded walk against reliever Pete Richert. Smith's sacrifice fly brought home another run in the eighth. Dick Ellsworth and Lee Stange combined for the seven-hit shutout.

Washburn Turns Tables, No-Hits Giants For Cards

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth—but a no-hitter for a no-hitter? What kind of revenge is that?

That's Cardinal revenge.

Few teams have gotten the edge on the World Series-bound Cardinals this season, and so when Gaylord Perry of San Francisco clipped them with a no-hitter Tuesday, in Candlestick Park, the Cardinals naturally took offense.

Less than 24 hours later Ray Washburn retaliated for St. Louis and stopped the Giants without a hit for a 2-1 victory Wednesday, the first time no-hitters have been pitched in successive games in the same ballpark. Now that's real revenge.

Washburn, a 30-year-old right-hander coming back all the way this season after plagued by arm trouble much of the time since his first full season with the Cardinals in 1961, had more trouble with his control than with the Giants. He walked five, and struck out eight, in raising his record to 13-7.

The rest of the National League action was more routine as the Chicago Cubs downed the New York Mets 7-2, Atlanta nipped Houston 2-1, Philadelphia got by Pittsburgh 2-1 and

RAY WASHBURN

Cincinnati blanked Los Angeles 2-0.

Bob Bolin of the Giants matched the shutout until the seventh when Mike Shannon doubled home Orlando Cepeda. Dick Schofield doubled in the eighth and eventually scored on Curt Flood's infield hit.

Washburn's gem was the fifth in the majors this season and third in the National League.

The Giants clung to second place despite the loss, although Cincinnati climbed within two games as Gerry Arrigo and Ted Abernathy hurled a four-hitter and Tony Perez doubled in one run and scored another.

The Cubs remained 15½ games back and in the battle for second place as Jim Hickman broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth inning with a run-scoring single and Adolfo Phillips followed with his 11th homer.

Loser Jerry Koosman, 18-11 homered for the Mets, who broke their own major league strike out record of 1,129 for one season by fanning four times for 1,132.

The loss left the Mets still tied with Houston for last place after Phil Niekro of Atlanta cut down the Astros on three hits and Hank and Tommie Aaron doubled home runs in the first inning.

Johnny Briggs singled home a run off Bob Veale in the seventh inning, giving Jerry Johnson and Philadelphia their victory. The hit followed Tony Taylor's run-scoring ground out.

Perry, Washburn Pitch

Consecutive No-Hitters In Same Park Set Mark

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Twice in less than 24 hours either the San Francisco Giants or the St. Louis Cardinals went hitless as the Cardinals' Ray Washburn and the Giants' Gaylord Perry tossed consecutive no-hitters, the fourth and fifth in the major leagues this baseball season.

Perry walked two in no-hitting the National League pennant winners 1-0 Tuesday night and Washburn, surviving five walks, did the same, 2-0, Wednesday.

It was the first time in baseball history that successive no-hitters were pitched in the same park, and fewer than 15,000 fans —4,703 of them in the stands Wednesday—saw the masterpieces.

Despite the walks, caused by a wild sinkerball, Washburn was in complete control.

The 30-year-old Kirkland, Wash., right-hander, now 13-7, got the only run he needed in the seventh when Orlando Cepeda singled with one out, went to second on John Edwards' grounder and scored on Mike Shannon's double.

St. Louis scored again in the eighth as Dick Schofield opened with a double, went to third on Washburn's sacrifice and came in on Curt Flood's infield single.

The only other time two no-hitters were pitched on successive days in the same park was in 1917 when the St. Louis Browns did it against the Chicago White Sox. But it was over a span of three games.

Ernest Koob no-hit the White Sox 1-0 on May 5 and Robert Groom repeated the feat 3-0 in the second game of a doubleheader on May 6.

"I got around to thinking about a no-hitter in the sixth," said Washburn, "By then, the boys were saying, 'Let's get some more hits' or 'Let's get some more runs.' But nobody said anything about a no-hitter.

"I got up to the full count several times. That probably was from not wanting to give in on a no-hitter.

"You can't make mistakes when you have fellows like Willie Mays and Willie McCovey coming up. But after I got Ron Hunt out in the ninth, I felt like I was in even against Mays and McCovey."

Mays grounded to third for the second out and Washburn got two quick strikes on McCovey before throwing a ball.

McCovey, the league homer leader with 34, lined the next pitch to Flood for the final out.

Reliever Joe Hoerner started warming up in the bullpen in the seventh after Washburn walked Hunt and McCovey. With one out, they advanced on Jim Hart's ground out. But Washburn retired the side by striking out Dick Dietz.

"I've waited 16 years for this and what a way to go out," exclaimed Cardinal outfielder Roger Maris, who is retiring after the World Series.

Washburn said he didn't get nervous until the end.

Cepeda remarked that maybe Washburn felt confident but there was plenty of tension for everybody else in the late innings.

"You keep thinking, just one booboo and you've messed up the whole thing."

Pitt To Start 9 Sophs Vs. UCLA Bruins

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pitt Panthers will start nine sophomores, seven of them on defense, in Saturdays opener against UCLA in Los Angeles.

Coach Dave Hart said Tuesday only two first-year-players will start on offense, both in the backfield. They are quarterback 'Dave Havern and tailback Denny Ferris.

Hart said the team will spend extra time working on its kicking game this week. The department was a poor one for the last two Panther teams, which both complied 1-9 records.

Bill Booth To Sponsor Wrestling

Tickets are $1 for children under 12, $2 general admission and $3 for ringside. Tickets are available at Heimies, Robins and Sant and Billingsley's Foodland in Calcutta. Proceeds will go to defray league operating expenses.

Angotti Back In Penguins' Hockey Camp

BRANTFORD, Ont. (AP) — Center Lou Angotti is back with the Pittsburgh Penguins after taking a walk for a day.

The club said Angotti, who led the Philadelphia Flyers in scoring last year, returned to camp Tuesday, a day after he walked out after a mild rhubarb with Coach Red Sullivan.

There was no comment from either Angotti or Sullivan, but the center reportedly was upset because he was shifted to right wing in training drills.

Meanwhile, the Penguins announced that Andy Bathgate has signed a contract for his 15th season in the National Hockey League.

Bathgate, 36, lead the West Division in scoring last year with 20 goals and 39 assists. He is the leagues eighth leading all time goal scorer with 334 and second in assists with 595.

Center Wally Byer also has signed a contract with the Penguins. He was acquired in a offseason trade wth Montreal.

Tangerine Bowl Offer Accepted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Mid-American Conference and Southern Conference football champions will meet in the postseason Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., this year and next.

MAC Commissioner Bob James said Wednesday the league's Council of Presidents had voted to accept the Tangerine Bowl Committee's invitation to enter into a two-year agreement.

London had the world's first subway. It dates from 1863.

Cross-Country Schedule

Thursday

E. Palestine and Springfield Local at E. Liverpool

The University of Pittsburgh fielded its first football team in 1890 when it was still known as the Western University of Pennsylvania.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

Once again, Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. was the winner of the quiz, getting a perfect score this week. Jake Christensen of Concordia (Minn.) College, 190-109-13, and Jake Gaither of Florida A&M, 187-33-4, are the two winningest NCAA small-college football coaches in the country. Dwight (Dike) Beede of Youngstown, 163-114-19 and Bill Edwards of Wittenberg, 162-42-8, come next. Phil Moore is coaching again at Kenyon despite a 0-8-0 mark last year in his first season. Altoona, with a 20-14 win in 1966, is the only out-of-state team to defeat Massillon at Tiger Stadium. Massillon whipped East Liverpool 42-0 in 1960. Bill Anderson of Tulsa holds six passing and total offense major college records and Howard Twilley paired with him to set four receiving records. The returning major - college statistics champions are O. J. Simpson, USC, rushing; Leroy Keyes, Purdue, scoring; Terry Stone, New Mexico, passing; Zenon Andrusyshyn, UCLA, punting; Mike Battle, USC, punt returns; and Gerald Warren, North Carolina St., kick-scoring. Penn State in 1938 set still-standing season marks for least passing yards, least average yards, least passes attempted and lowest percentage of completions. George Bork of Northern Illinois once held every passing record in the book, after his graduation in 1964, but only his 244 completions his senior season is now a record.

This week's questions:

1. When Sandy Koufax struck out 15 against the Yankees in the 1963 World Series whose record did he break?
2. Who was the 15th victim?
3. Who was the loser when Don Larsen pitched his perfect game in the World Series?
4. Who made the final out against Larsen?
5. How did he go out?
6. Who were the pitchers in the final game of the 1956 series?
7. Who lost a game on a balk in the 1953 series?
8. Who started a key double-play in the last game of the 1955 series?
9. How was the last out recorded in the 1955 series finale?
10. What team scored 10 runs in an inning in the World Series to overcome an 8-0 lead?

Jim Bowersock Player Of Week

After viewing films of the 40-6 loss to Leetonia, the coaches decided that Bowersock was the only player deserving of an award. He starred on offense and defense, carrying the ball well from his halfback spot and tackling well at linebacker and halfback on defense.

Fight Results

LONDON — Henry Cooper, 18½, Britain, stopped Karl Mildenberger, 207½, Germany, 6, when referee disqualified Mildenberger for butting; Cooper regained European heavyweight championship.

Washburn Turns Tables, No-Hits Giants For Cards

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth—but a no-hitter for a no-hitter? What kind of revenge is that?

That's Cardinal revenge.

Few teams have gotten the edge on the World Series-bound Cardinals this season, and so when Gaylord Perry of San Francisco clipped them with a no-hitter Tuesday, in Candlestick Park, the Cardinals naturally took offense.

Less than 24 hours later Ray Washburn retaliated for St. Louis and stopped the Giants without a hit for a 2-1 victory Wednesday, the first time no-hitters have been pitched in successive games in the same ballpark. Now that's real revenge.

Washburn, a 30-year-old right-hander coming back all the way this season after plagued by arm trouble much of the time since his first full season with the Cardinals in 1961, had more trouble with his control than with the Giants. He walked five, and struck out eight, in raising his record to 13-7.

The rest of the National League action was more routine as the Chicago Cubs downed the New York Mets 7-2, Atlanta nipped Houston 2-1, Philadelphia got by Pittsburgh 2-1 and

RAY WASHBURN

Cincinnati blanked Los Angeles 2-0.

Bob Bolin of the Giants matched the shutout until the seventh when Mike Shannon doubled home Orlando Cepeda. Dick Schofield doubled in the eighth and eventually scored on Curt Flood's infield hit.

Washburn's gem was the fifth in the majors this season and third in the National League.

The Giants clung to second place despite the loss, although Cincinnati climbed within two games as Gerry Arrigo and Ted Abernathy hurled a four-hitter and Tony Perez doubled in one run and scored another.

The Cubs remained 15½ games back and in the battle for second place as Jim Hickman broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth inning with a run-scoring single and Adolfo Phillips followed with his 11th homer.

Loser Jerry Koosman, 18-11 homered for the Mets, who broke their own major league strike out record of 1,129 for one season by fanning four times for 1,132.

The loss left the Mets still tied with Houston for last place after Phil Niekro of Atlanta cut down the Astros on three hits and Hank and Tommie Aaron doubled home runs in the first inning.

Johnny Briggs singled home a run off Bob Veale in the seventh inning, giving Jerry Johnson and Philadelphia their victory. The hit followed Tony Taylor's run-scoring ground out.

Perry, Washburn Pitch

Consecutive No-Hitters In Same Park Set Mark

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Twice in less than 24 hours either the San Francisco Giants or the St. Louis Cardinals went hitless as the Cardinals' Ray Washburn and the Giants' Gaylord Perry tossed consecutive no-hitters, the fourth and fifth in the major leagues this baseball season.

Perry walked two in no-hitting the National League pennant winners 1-0 Tuesday night and Washburn, surviving five walks, did the same, 2-0, Wednesday.

It was the first time in baseball history that successive no-hitters were pitched in the same park, and fewer than 15,000 fans —4,703 of them in the stands Wednesday—saw the masterpieces.

Despite the walks, caused by a wild sinkerball, Washburn was in complete control.

The 30-year-old Kirkland, Wash., right-hander, now 13-7, got the only run he needed in the seventh when Orlando Cepeda singled with one out, went to second on John Edwards' grounder and scored on Mike Shannon's double.

St. Louis scored again in the eighth as Dick Schofield opened with a double, went to third on Washburn's sacrifice and came in on Curt Flood's infield single.

The only other time two no-hitters were pitched on successive days in the same park was in 1917 when the St. Louis Browns did it against the Chicago White Sox. But it was over a span of three games.

Ernest Koob no-hit the White Sox 1-0 on May 5 and Robert Groom repeated the feat 3-0 in the second game of a doubleheader on May 6.

"I got around to thinking about a no-hitter in the sixth," said Washburn, "By then, the boys were saying, 'Let's get some more hits' or 'Let's get some more runs.' But nobody said anything about a no-hitter.

"I got up to the full count several times. That probably was from not wanting to give in on a no-hitter.

"You can't make mistakes when you have fellows like Willie Mays and Willie McCovey coming up. But after I got Ron Hunt out in the ninth, I felt like I was in even against Mays and McCovey."

Mays grounded to third for the second out and Washburn got two quick strikes on McCovey before throwing a ball.

McCovey, the league homer leader with 34, lined the next pitch to Flood for the final out.

Reliever Joe Hoerner started warming up in the bullpen in the seventh after Washburn walked Hunt and McCovey. With one out, they advanced on Jim Hart's ground out. But Washburn retired the side by striking out Dick Dietz.

"I've waited 16 years for this and what a way to go out," exclaimed Cardinal outfielder Roger Maris, who is retiring after the World Series.

Washburn said he didn't get nervous until the end.

Cepeda remarked that maybe Washburn felt confident but there was plenty of tension for everybody else in the late innings.

Pitt To Start 9 Sophs Vs. UCLA Bruins

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pitt Panthers will start nine sophomores, seven of them on defense, in Saturdays opener against UCLA in Los Angeles.

Coach Dave Hart said Tuesday only two first-year-players will start on offense, both in the backfield. They are quarterback Dave Havern and tailback Denny Ferris.

Hart said the team will spend extra time working on its kicking game this week. The department was a poor one for the last two Panther teams, which both complied 1-9 records.

Bill Booth To Sponsor Wrestling

The Bill Booth football little league will sponsor a professional wrestling show Saturday at 8:45 p.m. at the M.A.

Headlining the card will be World Wide Wrestling Federations heavyweight, champion Bruno Sammartino, 265. He will team with Battman against Bull Ramos and the Kentucky Butcherer. Others on the program are Ace Freeman, George Steele and Johnny DeFazio, along with a bout featuring lady wrestlers.

Tickets are $1 for children under 12, $2 general admission and $3 for ringside. Tickets are available at Heimies, Robins and Sant and Billingsley's Foodland in Calcutta. Proceeds will go to defray league operating expenses.

Angotti Back In Penguins' Hockey Camp

The club said Angotti, who led the Philadelphia Flyers in scoring last year, returned to camp Tuesday, a day after he walked out after a mild rhubarb with Coach Red Sullivan.

There was no comment from either Angotti or Sullivan, but the center reportedly was upset because he was shifted to right wing in training drills.

Meanwhile, the Penguins announced that Andy Bathgate has signed a contract for his 15th season in the National Hockey League.

Bathgate, 36, lead the West Division in scoring last year with 20 goals and 39 assists. He is the leagues eighth leading all time goal scorer with 334 and second in assists with 595.

Center Wally Byer also has signed a contract with the Penguins. He was acquired in a offseason trade wth Montreal.

Tangerine Bowl Offer Accepted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Mid-American Conference and Southern Conference football champions will meet in the postseason Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., this year and next.

MAC Commissioner Bob James said Wednesday the league's Council of Presidents had voted to accept the Tangerine Bowl Committee's invitation to enter into a two-year agreement.

London had the world's first subway. It dates from 1863.

Jim Bowersock Player Of Week

After viewing films of the 40-6 loss to Leetonia, the coaches decided that Bowersock was the only player deserving of an award. He starred on offense and defense, carrying the ball well from his halfback spot and tackling well at linebacker and halfback on defense.

Fight Results

LONDON — Henry Cooper, 18½, Britain, stopped Karl Mildenberger, 207½, Germany, 8, when referee disqualified Mildenberger for butting; Cooper regained European heavyweight championship.

Sports Quiz

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

Once again, Jack Vodrey of Park Blvd. was the winner of the quiz, getting a perfect score this week. Jake Christensen of Concordia (Minn.) College, 190-109-13, and Jake Gaither of Florida A&M, 187-33-4, are the two winningest NCAA small-college football coaches in the country. Dwight (Dike) Beede of Youngstown, 163-114-19 and Bill Edwards of Wittenberg, 162-42-8, come next. Phil Moore is coaching again at Kenyon despite a 0-8-0 mark last year in his first season. Altoona, with a 20-14 win in 1966, is the only out-of-state team to defeat Massillon at Tiger Stadium. Massillon whipped East Liverpool 42-0 in 1960. Bill Anderson of Tulsa holds six passing and total offense major college records and Howard Twilley paired with him to set four receiving records. The returning major - college statistics champions are O. J. Simpson, USC, rushing; Leroy Keyes, Purdue, scoring; Terry Stone, New Mexico, passing; Zenon Andrusyshyn, UCLA, punting; Mike Battle, USC, punt returns; and Gerald Warren, North Carolina St., kick-scoring. Penn State in 1938 set still-standing season marks for least passing yards, least average yards, least passes attempted and lowest percentage of completions. George Bork of Northern Illinois once held every passing record in the book, after his graduation in 1964, but only his 244 completions his senior season is now a record.

This week's questions:

1. When Sandy Koufax struck out 15 against the Yankees in the 1963 World Series whose record did he break?
2. Who was the 15th victim?
3. Who was the loser when Don Larsen pitched his perfect game in the World Series?
4. Who made the final out against Larsen?
5. How did he go out?
6. Who were the pitchers in the final game of the 1956 series?
7. Who lost a game on a balk in the 1953 series?
8. Who started a key double-play in the last game of the 1955 series?
9. How was the last out recorded in the 1955 series finale?
10. What team scored 10 runs in an inning in the World Series to overcome an 8-0 lead?

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Be Sensible During Your Pregnancy

Q—One of my friends has a boy with birth defects and another has one who is mentally retarded. They both say it is because their husbands insisted on intercourse during pregnancy the first half of their pregnancies. My doctor says in-has nothing to do with the development of the fetus but that it may cause a miscarriage. What do you think?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—Birth defects and retardation may be caused by a woman being exposed to X-rays, contracting German measles or taking various drugs such as quinine, sulfas, iodides, anticoagulants and cortisone or other hormones in the first three months of her pregnancy. Most obstetricians permit intercourse in moderation in the first half of pregnancy.

Q — I have just discovered that I am two months pregnant. When I was about two weeks pregnant I had a chest X ray, not knowing then that I was pregnant. Could this cause any birth defects in my baby?

A—Although to be on the safe side pregnant women are advised not to have any X-ray films made except for vital reasons, a properly screened X ray of the chest would not hit the uterus and would not injure the baby.

Q—What kind of vitamin deficiency would cause a miscarriage?

A—Vitamin E deficiency in lower animals may cause failure to reproduce but no such effect has ever been reported in human beings, chiefly because it is nearly impossible to eliminate all sources of this vitamin from your diet.

Q—What harm could smallpox vaccination have on a pregnancy?

A—The cowpox virus used to vaccinate against smallpox may cross the placenta and infect the fetus. When this happens, the fetus may die but this very rarely happens as shown by the fact that in a combined series of 7,500 women vaccinated during pregnancy, none of their babies showed any signs of smallpox or any birth defects attributable to this disease.

Q—Toward the end of my recent pregnancy, I had what my doctor called toxemia. What is it? How dangerous is it? How can I prevent a recurrence in future pregnancies?

A — This is a form of eclampsia. It is manifested by scanty urine, headache, swelling of the feet and blurred vision. Because if not recognized and treated promptly it can be very dangerous to both mother and baby, all doctors like to see women at frequent intervals during pregnancy. The only prevention is vigilance. The treatment is bed rest, a diet low in protein, drugs to lower the blood pressure, if it is high, and other drugs as needed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Barr Will Seek New Wage Tax In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mayor Joseph M. Barr says he will seek state premission to levy a second wage tax in the city for non-residents as well as residents to strengthen police and fire protection.

Barr said Wednesday Pittsburgh faces its worst financial crisis in history and a "public safety tax"—not over one per cent of earned income—will benefit non-residents as well as city residents.

Barr said, "If our central cities are to survive, the first order of business must be the preservation of the public peace.

Oher municipalities could levy the "public safety tax" on Pittsburgh residents who work in such municipalties under his proposed legislation, Barr said.

He said increased wages for police and firemen and other higher city costs have caused Pittsburgh's financial crisis.

"Every major city in the country is faced with this problem and they are being compelled to seek realistic solutions," Barr said.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Be Sensible During Your Pregnancy

Q—One of my friends has a boy with birth defects and another has one who is mentally retarded. They both say it is because their husbands insisted on intercourse during pregnancy the first half of their pregnancies. My doctor says it has nothing to do with the development of the fetus but that it may cause a miscarriage. What do you think?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—Birth defects and retardation may be caused by a woman being exposed to X-rays, contracting German measles or taking various drugs such as quinine, sulfas, iodides, anticoagulants and cortisone or other hormones in the first three months of her pregnancy. Most obstetricians permit intercourse in moderation in the first half of pregnancy.

Q — I have just discovered that I am two months pregnant. When I was about two weeks pregnant I had a chest X ray, not knowing then that I was pregnant. Could this cause any birth defects in my baby?

A—Although to be on the safe side pregnant women are advised not to have any X-ray films made except for vital reasons, a properly screened X ray of the chest would not hit the uterus and would not injure the baby.

Q—What kind of vitamin deficiency would cause a miscarriage?

A—Vitamin E deficiency in lower animals may cause failure to reproduce but no such effect has ever been reported in human beings, chiefly because it is nearly impossible to eliminate all sources of this vitamin from your diet.

Q—What harm could smallpox vaccination have on a pregnancy?

A—The cowpox virus used to vaccinate against smallpox may cross the placenta and infect the fetus. When this happens, the fetus may die but this very rarely happens as shown by the fact that in a combined series of 7,500 women vaccinated during pregnancy, none of their babies showed any signs of smallpox or any birth defects attributable to this disease.

Q—Toward the end of my recent pregnancy, I had what my doctor called toxemia. What is it? How dangerous is it? How can I prevent a recurrence in future pregnancies?

A — This is a form of eclampsia. It is manifested by scanty urine, headache, swelling of the feet and blurred vision. Because if not recognized and treated promptly it can be very dangerous to both mother and baby, all doctors like to see women at frequent intervals during pregnancy. The only prevention is vigilance. The treatment is bed rest, a diet low in protein, drugs to lower the blood pressure, if it is high, and other drugs as needed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Barr Will Seek New Wage Tax In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mayor Joseph M. Barr says he will seek state premission to levy a second wage tax in the city for non-residents as well as residents to strengthen police and fire protection.

Barr said Wednesday Pittsburgh faces its worst financial crisis in history and a "public safety tax"—not over one per cent of earned income—will benefit non-residents as well as city residents.

Barr said, "If our central cities are to survive, the first order of business must be the preservation of the public peace.

Oher municipalities could levy the "public safety tax" on Pittsburgh residents who work in such municipalties under his proposed legislation, Barr said.

He said increased wages for police and firemen and other higher city costs have caused Pittsburgh's financial crisis.

"Every major city in the country is faced with this problem and they are being compelled to seek realistic solutions," Barr said.

Social Security Officials Speak At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Robert Harris, manager, and John Patti, assistant manager, of the Social Security district office at East Liverpool spoke during the meeting of the Southern Community Center Tuesday night.

Sicial Security and Medicare were discussed.

Mrs. Ann LeCroy King, center director, said plans are being made for another meeting on Social Security for interested Columbiana County residents. If sufficient people notify her, the meeting will be arranged, she said.

Two sets of encyclopedias and other books already have been contributed.

Young people are invited to attend the classes or to come to the center for reading, studying or visits.

Junior Editors Quiz on SNAKES

* * *

ANSWER: There are four main kinds of poisonous snakes in this country, which we show in the top of the picture. Rattlesnakes, copperheads and water moccasins all belong to a group called pit vipers because of a pit between the eye and nostril. These are thick-bodied snakes with arrow-shaped heads, mostly with dark saddleshapes across the body. They have long fangs and are extremely dangerous. The rattlesnake vibrates his tail when angry. His rattles make a buzzing sound. The smaller copperhead is pinkish copper in color, and the moccasin is dark with a white mouth. The fourth poisonous snake, the coral, is different in shape, thin, with a small head. The fangs are small, but the poison is deadly. Coral snakes are found in the southern parts of the United States.

Below the poisonous snakes, we show three harmless snakes which might be confused with them. There is no simple rule to tell a poisonous from a harmless snake. Unless you are a snake expert, it is best to leave all of them alone.

(Terrence Ryan of Wyckoff, N.J., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Junior Editors Quiz on SNAKES

* * *

ANSWER: There are four main kinds of poisonous snakes in this country, which we show in the top of the picture. Rattlesnakes, copperheads and water moccasins all belong to a group called pit vipers because of a pit between the eye and nostril. These are thick-bodied snakes with arrow-shaped heads, mostly with dark saddleshapes across the body. They have long fangs and are extremely dangerous. The rattlesnake vibrates his tail when angry. His rattles make a buzzing sound. The smaller copperhead is pinkish copper in color, and the moccasin is dark with a white mouth. The fourth poisonous snake, the coral, is different in shape, thin, with a small head. The fangs are small, but the poison is deadly. Coral snakes are found in the southern parts of the United States.

Below the poisonous snakes, we show three harmless snakes which might be confused with them. There is no simple rule to tell a poisonous from a harmless snake. Unless you are a snake expert, it is best to leave all of them alone.

(Terrence Ryan of Wyckoff, N.J., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)
